Grover Board Votes Itself Monthly Salary

For the first time in the town's 100 year history, the Town of Grover aldermen are paying themselves a salary.

Grover Town Commissioners, in a recent action, set their salaries at $100 monthly and set the mayor's salary at $150 monthly.

"It's certainly most deserved," said Town Clerk Laura Mellon, who said that the commissioners and Mayor Bill McCarter "spend many hours on committee meetings and duties not connected with the regular monthly meetings on second Monday nights."

The commissioners, all of whom were re-elected during the recent elections, are Bill Camp, Grady Ross, Don Rich and Jim Howell. Terms of Mayor Pro Tem Ronald Queen and Mayor Bill McCarter do not expire until 1987.

During a special meeting Monday night, the commissioners hired a woman police officer, Donna Treadway, 44, of Shelby, to replace fired police officer Robert Tester and borrowed a patrol car for her to use from the Cleveland County Sheriff's Department until a new car is delivered in June. Ms. Treadway will report to work April 1. The new light blue Ford patrol car is being purchased from Capital Ford Co. in Raleigh at cost of $10,283.

Tester was discharged after 10 months on the job on March 10th following an engine fire which destroyed the town's only patrol car. Tester had complained at the

KM Man Injured When Home-Made Cannon Explodes

Randy Caveny Parker, 22, of Route 6, was transferred to Charlotte Memorial Hospital Monday from Kings Mountain Hospital with neck injuries after a homemade cannon blew up and knocked him through a door.

City Ptl. Gary Sale and Det. Richard Reynolds, who are investigating, said the incident occurred at a residence on Wells Street when Parker and some friends were attempting to light the device, Reynolds said another man had made as a noise-maker. The device, according to the officer, consisted of pipe welded together with a brace. Screw-type caps were on one end with a small hole bored into one so a fuse could be inserted. Inside

Region C Commission Studying City Salaries

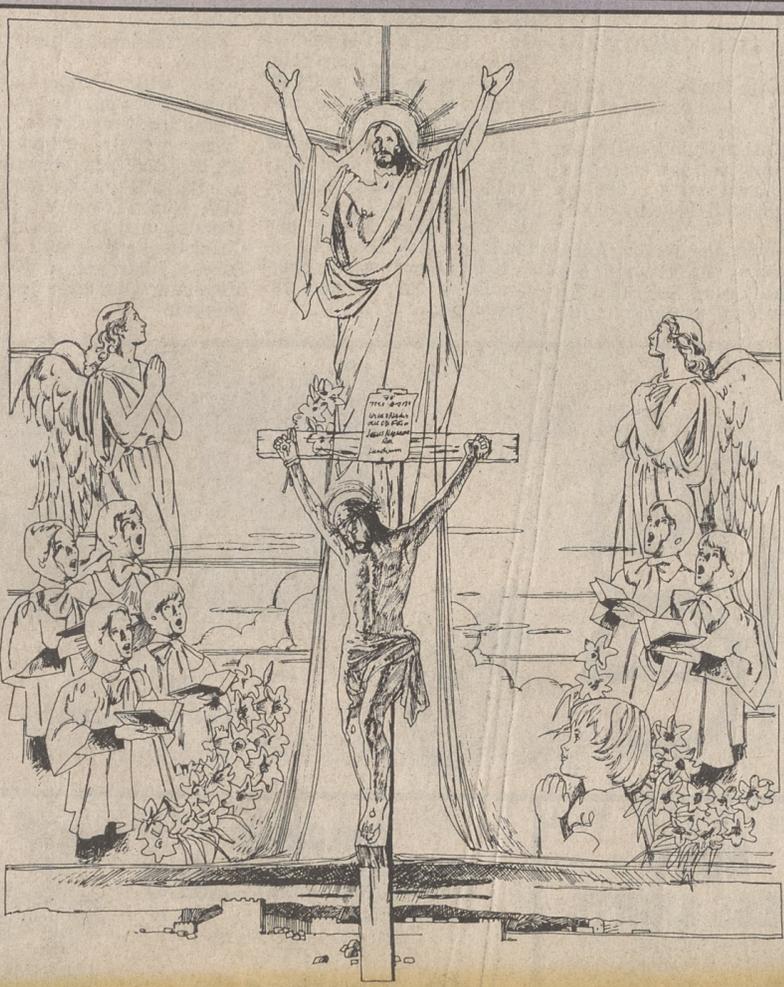

A Kings Mountain salary study is nearing completion by Region C planners at the Isothermal Planning and Development Commission and should be in the hands of the city board of commissioners by mid-April.

Gene White, the Kings Mountain administrator in charge of collecting data for the study, said the evaluation is a "management tool" which will be used to discover if there are inequities in salaries for city employees.

According to White the IDPC planners are comparing the salary data for City of

At Dixon Presbyterian Church the communion service will be held at 7:30 p.m. and a short meditation will be led by Rev. Graham Wood, pastor, before the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The public is invited.

Two Offices To Be Built

Groundbreaking of the proposed new dental and optometry office complex on West King Street took place Monday.

Dr. Grady Howard, Jr., dentist, and Dr. David McDaniel, optometrist, jointly announced that the new building, which will house two separate offices for their practices, will comprise 4,300 square feet of office space and give them the additional space required to better serve their patients.

The two-office complex will be connected by a covered walkway and includes a large parking lot.

The building will be of brick construction with a hip roof and constructed on the 3/4 acre lot recently purchased from the City of Kings Mountain in its redevelopment program. It will be built on the north side of West King Street about 400 feet west of Watterson Street.

First Federal Kings Mountain Service Corporation is contractor for the office complex which is expected to cost $250,000 plus and is financed by First Federal Savings &

Loan Association. Jim Claftee is contractor and J.W. McGinnis is architect.

Workmen are at the site this week clearing the land and cutting down trees.

The two doctors estimate the construction will be completed in six months.

St. Luke's Easter Story

Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

And they found the stone, rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.

And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, why seek ye the living among the dead?

He is not here, but is risen; remember how he spake unto you when he was in Galilee, saying, the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his words, and returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest. St. Luke 24:1-9.
