

KMHS Golfers Post First Win

Kings Mountain High's golfers won their first Southwestern 3-A Conference match in five years Thursday at Pine Grove.

The Mountaineers posted a 341 team score to best three other SWC schools. North Gaston finished second with a 349, Chase was third with 353 and host Burns fourth with 364.

Kings Mountain's Bryant Wells was medalist for the match with an 81.

Other KM scores included

Eric Hicks 84, Bo Ballard 86, and Jamie Belcher and Chris Herndon 90 each.

The Mountaineers travel to Shelby Thursday to face the Golden Lions, North Gaston, and East Rutherford.

Ledford Wins Dag-Gone Golf Tourney

Carol Ledford fired a 131 to win the Dag-Gone Handicap Golf Tournament Saturday and Sunday at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Ledford won by seven strokes over Brenda Sellers, who had a 138. Bill Sellers was third with a 141.

Phil Russ won the first flight with a 138 total. Eric Spicer and Stoney Jackson tied for second with 140 scores.

Mary Broadwell won the second flight with a 153, followed by Ned Lilly at 154 and Jerry Broadwell at 158.

Ken Cloninger took third flight honors with a 159.

Margie Yancey was second at 161 and George Bowen third at 166.

The Couples Member-Tournament will be held this weekend. Golfers who have not yet signed up are urged to sign up at the pro shop.

Junior High Wrestlers In Magazine

The Kings Mountain Junior High wrestling team and six of its members were recognized in the March issue of Wrestling U.S.A., a national publication which features high school and college wrestlers.

Kings Mountain Junior

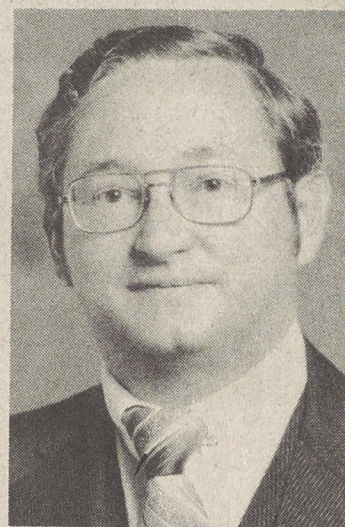

High was cited for having won the Western N.C. Junior High Athletic Association for nine straight years and individuals Chris Henson, Andy Hollifield, D.J. Williams, Bradley Henderson, Lyn Goddard and Johnny Nations were recognized for having gone undefeated during the past season.

"We're really tickled," noted KM Coach Phil Weathers. "It's an honor for a junior high to be included in the magazine and our wrestlers are real excited about it."
