Some miracles are simply the result of skilled hands and sophisticated equipment.

Often we don't fully appreciate the miracles of modern medicine until one of our loved ones is in need. Then, knowing that he or she is receiving the benefits of advanced technology and the attention of skilled professionals becomes the most important issue in the world.

Fortunately, your hospital provides both the technology and the professional expertise crucial to a patient's recovery. Your hospital is well-equipped to provide the advanced technology needed to deliver state-of-the-art health care. For example, our CT body scanner can provide details which don't show up with many ordinary x-rays.

We also take pride in giving you personalized care—at Gaston Memorial you are assigned a primary nurse who is responsible for your total nursing care. Moreover, your health care team prepares an aftercare program to ensure your continued recovery when you leave the hospital.

In short, Gaston Memorial Hospital is meeting the area's needs with advanced health care that has virtually eliminated the need to go anywhere else. The skilled hands and sophisticated equipment are available right here whenever you or your loved ones need them.

Gaston Memorial Hospital. Far advanced. Not far away.
