

Myra Jenkins Honored

A bridal shower Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Herman Greene on Maner Road honored Miss Myra Jenkins, whose wedding to Michael Dean Spears will take place May 17th in Lutheran Chapel Church of Gastonia.

Sharing hostess duties with Mrs. Greene were Mrs. Bill Davis, Mrs. M.C. Pruette and Mrs. Bob Maner. Special guests included the bride-elect's mother, the bridegroom-to-be's mother, and grandmothers of the engaged pair. Also present were Kevin and Laurie Jenkins, sisters of the bride-elect, who are all brides-elect of the summer season.

Pink azaleas and purple iris decorated the Greene home. The bride's table, highlight of decoration, held a silver punch bowl holding strawberry punch and silver trays holding cake and mints decorated with pink rosebuds, cheese wafers, vegetable sandwiches and sausage balls.

The 30 guests, who called from 7 until 9 p.m., showered the bride-elect with gifts for her new home.

Participating in the wedding as honorary bridesmaids were Sharese Bell of Kings Mountain, Patricia Chitwood of Gastonia, Evelyn Roberts of Boone, and Edna Smith and Wanda Stowe, both of Kings Mountain.

Flower girls Shatoi Scott and Monique Williams of Kings Mountain, nieces of the bride, wore long white gowns styled like that of the bride with chapel trains and halos in their hair of baby's breath and roses.

Carlos Smith of Kings Mountain and Orlando Williams of Grover, cousins of the bride, carried the rings.

Robert Smith, Jr. escorted his mother to the family pew. Mrs. Smith chose a dusty rose formal with wrapped skirt and sequined bodice and a corsage of fuchsia roses.

Hubert Chamber of Charlotte escorted his sister, Mrs. Lockhart, mother of the bridegroom. She wore a dark blue formal and a corsage of fuchsia roses.

Miss Yolanda Hines presided at the guest register. Mrs. Debbie W. Crocker directed the wedding.

Groomsmen were Tim Bartholomew of Orange Station, Larry Caldwell of Rock Hill, S.C., William Lockhart of Blacksburg, S.C., cousin of the bridegroom, Robert Smith, Jr. of Myrtle Beach, S.C. and Ron Smith of New Carrollton, Md., brothers of the bride.

Ushers were Hubert Chambers and Richard Chambers, both of Kannapolis, Aundrea Clark of New Carrollton, Md., Vernon Lockhart of Blacksburg, S.C., cousin of the bridegroom, and Quan Smith of Kings Mountain, brother of the bride.

Best man was Anthony Kennedy of Charlotte. Acolyte was Eugene Stevenson.

The bride's sister, Robin Arledge, entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception at Kings Mountain Depot where the wedding colors of fuchsia and white were carried out in decorative details.

The bride's table, highlight of decoration, held the eight tiered pedestal "stairway" wedding cake which was decorated in dusty rose and white and topped with bridal figurines. Mrs. Shirley Barnes cut and served the cake from a table overlaid with white and caught up with ivory and fuchsia bows. Centering the long refreshment table, also overlaid with white, was a silver five branched candelabrum decorated with candles and flowers in rose and fuchsia. Ivory and fuchsia bows also decorated the railings leading to the dining area of the Depot Center. Centering the bride's table was a bouquet of white balloons with silver bells and white doves. Assisting in serving refreshments were Miss Telena Warren, cousin of the bride, Zena Brown, Frances Curry, and Sophia Owens.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Smith of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride who is the granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Warren and the late Clarence Warren, Sr. of Kings Mountain. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School, where she studied cosmetology, and attended A & T University in Greensboro. She is employed with Cablelink, Inc. of Kings Mountain.

The bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Eddie Lockhart of Grover. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School and served in the U.S. Marine Corps. He is employed with Duke Power Company in Rock Hill, S.C. He is the grandson of Mrs. Mary Chambers.
