CYNTHIA IVESTER
Cynthia
In Contest

Cynthia Ivester, daughter of Brenda and David Ivester, competed in the 1986 North Carolina Teen Pageant. She placed first in Personal Interview and was runner-up for Miss Congeniality. She received a trophy, $50.00 cash scholarship, certificate, Miss Teen Gym bag, and an invitation to compete in the 1987 Teen pageant. The pageant was based on five categories: scholastic achievement, personal interview, formal wear, speech or talent, and volunteer work. The pageant was held in the Carolina Ballroom at Adam's Mark Hotel in Charlotte. The pageant consisted of 93 contestants from various cities throughout North Carolina. Miss Ivester is a junior at KMSHS and is presently employed part-time at Kings Mountain Pool and Garden. Cynthia's sponsors were her parents and family, Plonk Brothers, Optimist Club and Amity Finance, all of Kings Mountain.

John Hardin
Is Commended

John S. Hardin, son of John W. and Jackie Hardin of Rt. 5, Kings Mountain, was commended by William H. Webster, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, for exceptional work for fiscal year 1985. Hardin, a Data Transcriber at FBI Headquarters in Washington, D.C., was presented with a certificate of recognition by Juanita Carter, who represented Director Webster, at a small ceremony at the FBI building. Hardin has been with the FBI since February, 1985. He is a 1979 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School.
