City Appeals Decision

The city entered an appeal this week of Superior Court Judge Frank Snapp's ruling in which he upheld a prior court decision which guaranteed residents of Clinestead area of Moss Lake the right of access to the water's edge and "reasonable use" of the adjoining land. By ruling on the matter, Snapp, who was presiding over a week's civil term, precluded the case from coming to trial in Cleveland County Superior Court. The city maintains that Moss Lake pier owners owe annual fee of $125 but some property owners say they owe only $25 annual waterfront usage fees because the city had already given up right to lakefront easements to Clinestead, then owned by Mr. and Mrs. Buford Cline, and purchased by the city. Mayor John Henry Moss said the city is trying to enforce the lake rules as fairly as possible but that "our main concern is to have an orderly, environmentally operated lake."

Personnel Meeting Set

A special personnel meeting of the city board of commissioners has been called for Friday at 12 noon in Council Chambers at City Hall. The meeting has been called to hire summer workers at Moss Lake.
