Babe Ruth Team Wins

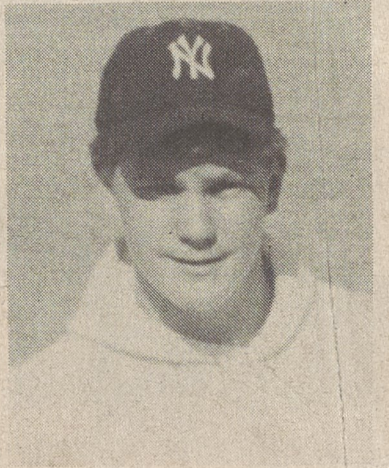

Kings Mountain Number Three won three more games during the past week to run its record to 7-0 in 14-15 year old Babe Ruth League action.

Number Three defeated Dennis's Pack and Go 9-2 Tuesday. Saturday, Number Three won a doubleheader at the KMHS park, defeating Southern Excavation 10-4 and Dennis's Pack and Go 10-7.

Shawn Garris hurled a three-hitter Tuesday and his teammates backed him with a seven-hit attack. Dale

In 1457, the Scottish Parliament outlawed football and golf because it felt that the two sports had lured young Scots from the more soldierly exercise of archery.

Hamilton, Gamble Win Father-Child Golf Tourney

Wayne Hamilton and John Gamble, with a 71, won the Father's Day Father-Child Golf Tournament sponsored by the Kings Mountain Woman's Golf Association on Sunday.

In second place were the team of Brad Wilson and Ronnie Wilson, with scores of 72, who had tied with the team of Robbie Wilson and Stoney Jackson. The Wilson team was winner of second place with an eagle on Number 1 in the play-offs. The Wilson-Jackson team placed third.

Bo and Mike Ballard won fourth place with score of 75; fifth place winners were Shan Conner and Dennis Conner with 77; sixth place winners were Matt Heavner and Tim Heavner with 79; seventh place winners were Rusty Bumgardner and Al Grigg with 81; eighth place winners were Ryan Broadwell and Jerry Broadwell with 84; and special prizes went to closest to hole on par 3, No. 5, Wayne Hamilton; No. 8, Todd Parker; No. 12, Paul Hendricks; longest drive on No. 11, Bo Ballard; shortest drive, Kenny Bridges. The best sport award went to Kenny Bridges.

Other participating teams were Rick and Tim Moore, Ken and Kenny Bridges, Scott and Brian Cloninger, Mitch Howze and Todd Parker, Ken Cloninger and Paul Hendricks, Jr., Lee McIntyre and Trey McIntyre, Darrell Austin, Jr. and Amy Austin, and Terry and Kyle Sellers.

In last week's report of winners of the recent Ladies Member-Member tournament the scores of the second place winners was incorrect.

Second place winners Lynne Mauney and Margaret Williams had a score of 161, not 176.

KMCC Women Golfers To Host Invitational

Kings Mountain Women's Golf Association of Kings Mountain Country Club will host an Invitational Golf Tournament Tuesday, June 24th, and other clubs participating will be Cleveland Springs Country Club, Woodbridge, River Bend Country Club, all of Cleveland County, Cherryville Country Club and Gastonia Municipal of Gaston County.

Publicity spokesman Doris Howze said registration will be at 9 a.m. and coffee and pastries will be served. Tee off time shotgun is at 9:30 a.m. Prizes will be awarded at a mid-afternoon luncheon in the clubhouse dining room, she said.

President Peggy Jackson said that between 50-60 women golfers are expected to participate in the 18-hole golf tournament.

Tournament chairman Mary Leigh Broadwell is encouraging Kings Mountain Country Club women golfers to sign up in the KMCC pro shop before Wednesday, June 19th.

Women Compete In Hickory

Six members of the Kings Mountain Women's Golf Association of KM Country Club took part in the Foothills Tournament at Catawba Springs Country Club in Hickory June 10th.

They were Margaret Williams, Ann Pouchak, Scarlett Cook, Doris Cloninger, Mary Leigh Broadwell and Peggy Jackson.

A field of 76 golfers from 12 area country clubs participated in the 18-hole tournament.

Mrs. Jackson, president of the Kings Mountain Women's Golf Association, said the next Foothills tournament will be July 17th at Caramel Country Club in Charlotte. Local members who want to attend should make reservations with local Foothills Representative Lynne Mauney before July 10th.
