Kings Mountain Jaycees Attend Officers College

Kings Mountain Jaycee President Claude Suber and five other chapter officers attended the North Carolina Jaycees Local Officers' Leadership College on June 6, 7, and 8 at the Asheboro High School.

The Local Officers' Leadership college is held annually to train incoming chapter officers in the management skills and programming responsibilities needed to better serve their communities.

Over 400 Jaycees from across North Carolina attended the three-day seminars according to Glenn Daly, President of the North Carolina Jaycees. A few of the topics covered with the new officers included Public Relations, Leadership Skills, Personnel Management, Fundraising, and Public Speaking. The highlight of the weekend activities was a tour of the North Carolina Jaycee State

Privilege Tax Due

Leon Pollander, Revenue Officer, urges taxpayer who are liable for state privilege licenses to apply before July 1.

Pollander advises that the 1980 census is to be used where the applicable rate of tax is based upon population. Applications for licenses, together with the current remittance, should be mailed to the North Carolina Department of Revenue, P.O. Box 25000, Raleigh, N.C. 27640, or submitted to the local North Carolina Department of Revenue office.

He also said that the penalty for failure to comply will be five percent for each delinquent month, or fraction thereof, after July 1.

Bullard Graduates

Senior Airman Raymond C. Bullard, son of Raymond T. and Annie M. Bullard of 815 Third St., Kings Mountain, N.C., has graduated from the U.S. Air Force course for computer programmers at Keesler Air Force Base, Miss.

Graduates of the course studied the operation of conventional and electronic data processing equipment, and earned credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.
