

MR. AND MRS. RAY W. CLINE
...note Golden Wedding Day

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cline Note 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ray W. Cline celebrated their Golden Wedding Day Saturday at an anniversary reception hosted by their six children, 22 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren at Kings Mountain Depot Center.

Hosts were Ray and Joyce Howell, Harold and Dixie Blanton, and Peggy Cline Wells, all of Kings Mountain, Ralph and Odus Cline of Gstonia, Carol Ray and Doris Cline of Springfield, Va. and Larry and Katherine Cline of Griffin, Ga.

Over 125 guests called between 2 and 5 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Howell greeted guests and Mike Blanton and Janice Langley said goodbyes. April and Sheldon Lynn presided at the gift table.

Lashelle Cline, Katherine Cline and Myrtle Christenson cut and served the anniversary cake which was served with champagne punch, vegetables and dip, potato chips, nuts and butter mints.

The golden anniversary theme of yellow and gold and white featured decorative details. White lace cloths overlaid the refreshment tables which were caught up with gold bows and arranged with yellow and white roses in brass vases and brass candelabras holding white tapers. The three tier anniversary cake, highlight of decoration, was topped with yellow roses and white daisies and encircled at the base with fresh yellow daisies. A champagne punch fountain centered the refreshment table from which party refreshments were served from silver trays.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sanford of Springfield, Va., Mr. and Mrs. Doug Cline of Fredericksburg, Va., Chief Petty Officer Chris Blanton and family of Buffalo, New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Walker of Granite City, Illinois.

After the reception, The Cline family enjoyed a cookout at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Blanton.

Ray W. Cline and Lib Huffstickler were married Sept. 26, 1936 in York, S.C. Long active in community affairs, they are members of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church and

Tri-City Record To Begin

Tri-City Record, a weekly newspaper covering the Gaston County towns of Bessemer City, Stanley and Dallas, will publish its first edition next week.

A combination of The Bessemer City Record and Stanley News, owned by Herald Publishing Company of Kings Mountain, the weekly newspaper will be expanded to include the neighboring town of Dallas.

Lois Smith, veteran editor of the Bessemer City Record, will continue as editor.

"Residents of Dallas have expressed their desire to have a weekly newspaper devoted to news and events of Dallas and working together in a tri-city combination we can make the Tri City Record a newspaper the three cities can be proud of", said General Manager Darrell Austin.

Austin said that Dallas readers will be able to turn in their news and pictures to Dub Rankin at Dallas Loan Office, 132 North Gaston Street.

Mrs. Smith said that she welcomes news from all three cities and asks residents of Bessemer City, Dallas and Stanley to call her to report their news and happenings from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. Mondays through Fridays at 629-2654. "We want to tell others what people in Dallas, Bessemer City and Stanley are doing, their accomplishments, their plans, their community service projects, their church events, and we want our readers to feel that our Tri City newspaper is their paper, a weekly filled with news about them, their families, their churches, their schools, their community", said Mrs. Smith.

Austin said that by combining the two existing Gaston County newspapers and adding Dallas, that Herald Publishing will be in a better position to serve readers and advertisers. "More personnel will enable us to give wider coverage to sports and community events. More photos can be used and more up-to-date accounts of news events reported," said Austin.

The Bessemer City Record has been published since 1957.

The Stanley News has been published since 1981.
