Garden Club Sets Meeting

Jane McPhaul, chairman of the Sir Walter Raleigh Historical Gardens, will be guest speaker Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in a program sponsored by the Magnolia Garden Club. Members of the Town and Country Garden Club, Kings Mountain Garden Club and Open Gate Garden Club, as well as all interested citizens, are also invited to attend the program and meeting. Mrs. W.L. Mauney will be hostess.

The Sir Walter Raleigh

Historical Garden is the second phase in a master plan for the Sandhills Regional Arboretum, located on a 14 acres, wheel-chair accessible site on the campus of Sandhills Community College. The Landscape Gardening Program at Sandhills Community College is unique in the N.C. Community College System and was established in 1968. Sandhills graduates now work throughout the nation in responsible positions in the horticulture industry. Grants from numerous citizens and private and public organizations have made possible the original classroom building, greenhouses and equipment.

The historical garden concept, according to local members of Magnolia Garden Club, began as part of the statewide celebration of America's 400th anniversary festivities commemorating the attempted colonization of Roanoke Island in 1584. The plan calls for a historic replica of a period garden similar to those which existed in Elizabethan times.

Dinner Party Honors Couple

A dinner party honoring Miss Faye Ramey and Clyde Kerns, whose wedding takes place Nov. 22 in Central United Methodist Church, was hosted Sept. 20th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Maner.

Entertaining with the Maners were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Maner. Bo Maner also assisted his parents in receiving guests.

Fall flowers decorated the Maner home.

Supper was served to members of the two families, including the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burris Ramey; the bridegroom-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Kerns; the bride-elect's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gordon, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedden.

The hosts took the occasion to present the engaged pair with an ice cream maker as a hostess gift.

Dixon 4-H Meeting Set For Tuesday

"Pressing Memories" will be the program theme at Tuesday night's meeting of the Dixon Community 4-H Club at 7 p.m. at Dixon Presbyterian Church.

Leaders Frances Green, Leona Walls and Gerry Parker will conduct a workshop on how to press flowers and invite young people to attend also a workshop on making book markers.

All interested young people are invited to attend.
