KMHS Cager Mike Woods Gets College Scholarship

Working hard in the off-season paid off for Kings Mountain High basketballer Mike Woods this week as he received an athletic scholarship to East Tennessee State University.

He signed the grant Monday afternoon at the KMHS gym as his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haynes, and his high school coach, Larry Sipe looked on.

Woods, 6-4½, will play the center position for the Mountaineers this season, but East Tennessee has indicated they'll use him at the swing guard.

"He was a part-time starter for us last year," recalled Coach Sipe. "His practice this summer really paid off for him. He worked hard and made himself a good basketball player."

Woods caught the eye of college recruiters while playing AAU ball and in the local Six Star League last summer. He also attended the Prep Stars Basketball Camp at UNC-Charlotte and performed well against some highly-touted prepsters.

"This just goes to show that all high school basketball players need to play summer league ball," says Sipe, who was one of the organizers of the local league which includes Kings Mountain, Cherryville, Shelby, Crest, Burns,
