

KM Junior High Wrestlers Defeat Shelby Team 72-9

Kings Mountain Junior High's wrestlers ran their conference record to 2-0 and overall mark to 5-0 Wednesday with a 72-9 victory over Shelby at the Central School gym.

The Patriots avenged their only conference defeat ever, a narrow loss to Shelby in the final league match of last season.

Coach Phil Weathers' Patriots face Burns in a conference match Wednesday.

"Last week's win was a very big one for us," noted Coach Weathers. "We felt all along that Shelby had a very good team and we tried to prepare for them on that basis. Our ninth graders, Chris Henson, Brady Goforth, Tracy Sullens, Steve Robbins and Reggie Moss provided a lot of leadership.

They had our last meeting with Shelby in the back of their minds and they wanted everybody to be ready to wrestle.

"I was very pleased with our overall performance," he added, "but I don't want us to get too overconfident. We still have a long way to go and now we're going to have to concentrate on the rest of the season."

Three Patriot grapplers—Tracy Sullens, Chris Henson and Billy Appling—pinned their opponents in less than 40 seconds.

In preliminary matches, Kings Mountain wrestlers Grant Holder, Mike Byers and Jonathan Chapman scored victories.

Patriots Win Sixth Straight Over Castle Heights 55-22

Kings Mountain Junior High's wrestlers won their sixth straight match and their second of the year over a tough Castle Heights team, 55-22 Monday in Rock Hill, S.C.

The Patriots, 2-0 in the Western Athletic Association, resume conference action Wednesday against an improved Burns team.

"Ever since we started wrestling Castle Heights, they've always had a good program and this year is no exception," said KM Coach Phil Weathers. "We were fortunate enough to win both matches against them this year."

Mark Stacy, Grant Holder, Tracy Sullens, Chris Henson and Steve Robbins all recorded pins for the KM team.
