Bloodmobile Big Success

The Cleveland County Red Cross bloodmobile visit to Kings Mountain's First Baptist Church last Tuesday netted 143 units of blood.

According to the Red Cross, 137 donors were present, including first-time donors Michelle Smith, Christine Shelby, Tammy Terry, Annette Webster, Joseph Hamrick Jr., Willard Yarborough, Juanita Blanton, Annette Grteene, Jerry Mayes and Mary Greene.

The visit was sponsored by the Kings Mountain City Employees. Assisting were members of Junior Girl Scout Troop 155 under the leadership of Phyllis Fujita. Girls baked cookies for the canteen and recruited donors.

The following donors completed gallon donations:

One gallon - Cynthia Morris, Elmer Wooten, Elizabeth Grigg, Launa McGill and Freda Sellers.

Two gallons - Jessie Carroll and Terry Sellers.

Five gallons - Lynne Mauney and David Hullender.

Six gallons - Anne Pauchak.

Seven gallons - Margaret Baird.

Eight gallons - Charles Wilson.

Thirteen gallons - Paul Ham.

Robert Kale, Juanita Steffy and Margaret Baird received VIP pins for giving four donations within a 12-month period.

The next bloodmobile visit to Kings Mountain will be at First Baptist Church on Thurs., March 5 from 12:30 until 6 p.m. The visit will be sponsored by Kings Mountain Hospital.

Vital Signs Classes Slated By Red Cross

The Cleveland County Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold a Vital Signs Module I and II class at the Red Cross House on Sat., Jan. 17 from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

These courses are designed to teach non-medical personnel how to take and record a person's temperature, pulse and respiration, and blood pressure. Persons completing both modules are then certified to take pulse and blood pressures in the donor beltline at area Red Cross Bloodmobiles.

The cost of the course is $10.68 which includes both books and materials. Anyone interested should call the Red Cross office (487-8594) to register. Enrollment will be limited to 10 participants.
