

Film Series Slated At Boyce Memorial

The "Turn Your Heart Toward Home" film series will be shown at Boyce Memorial ARP Church. The Pastor, Bill Tyson, said that the church wished to invite any members of the community who wished to benefit from the counsel and advice of one of America's leading authorities on the family. The films will be shown in the Fellowship Hall at 7:00 p.m. Sunday evenings according to the following schedule:

Feb. 8 A Father Looks Back—dealing with a father's role during the all-important childhood years

Feb. 15 Power in Parenting: The Young Child

Feb. 22 Power in Parenting: The Adolescent
Mar. 8 The Family Under Fire—dealing with issues affecting the family in today's society

Mar. 29 Overcoming a Painful Childhood includes Shirley Dobson's memories of a difficult childhood with her alcoholic father, and the influences that brought her to a loving God.

Apr. 12 The Heritage—speaks of four traditional values which can help assure happy and healthy homes.

A Cancer Awareness Workshop for the hearing impaired sponsored by Gardner-Webb College and the Cleveland County Unit of the American Cancer Society, will be held at the College

Tuesday, February 17 at 7 p.m. in the Seminar Room of Dover Memorial Library. Jimmy Hines, principal at Boiling Springs Elementary School and a former health education coordinator for Cleveland County schools, and Mrs. Dianne Whisnant, the present health education coordinator for Cleveland County schools, will be present to discuss topics such as guidelines for check-ups and self-examination. All hearing impaired persons from Cleveland, Rutherford, and Burke counties are invited to attend this free workshop. Refreshments will be served.

Spring Fashion Tuesday

A Spring fashion show featuring clothing from Southern Lady of Gastonia will feature the program at the annual banquet Tuesday, Feb. 10th, of the Kings Mountain Country Club Women's Golf and Tennis Association at the clubhouse. Narrator for the fashion show will be Beverly Lineberger of Gastonia. Mrs. H. O. Williams has arranged the program. Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of awards to outstanding golfers. Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, club president, will preside. Reservations for dinner may be made by calling the club pro shop or contacting Mrs. Williams. The banquet will begin with a social half-hour at 6:30 p.m. with the banquet to follow. All members are invited to participate, said Mrs. Williams.
