Masters

Home in Gastonia.

Survivors include his wife, Betty Masters; and three children, Bennett J. Masters Jr., Robin Masters and Leann Masters.

Mr. Masters owned and operated Masters Funeral Home on Shelby Road for a number of years after spending his first 16 years in Kings Mountain as an employee of Harris Funeral Home.

Ronnie Hawkins, co-manager at Harris Funeral Home, called him "one of the best funeral directors and embalmers Kings Mountain has ever had. He taught me a lot."

Masters was a Dean's List student and graduate of Gup-ton Jones College of Mortu-ary Science in Dallas, Tex. He joined Harris Funeral Home in 1963 and left that firm in December of 1979. He opened Masters Funeral Home in March of 1980.

Masters was active in church and community service. He served for a number of years as chaplain of the Kings Mountain Fire Department and Kings Mountain Rescue Squad, and was a member of Bethware Progressive Club and other civic organizations. He had a weekend gospel music program on Radio Station WKMT for about 20 years.

ROBERT CHANEY
IRON STATION - Robert Howard Chaney, 64, of Iron Station, formerly of Kings Mountain, died Friday at his home. Funeral services were conducted Sunday at First Baptist Church in Stanley by the Rev. Milton Hollifield and the Rev. Eugene Land. Burial was in Hillcrest Gardens.

Mr. Chaney was the son of the late Rev. Robert L. Chaney and Winnie Moss Chaney of Kings Mountain.

He is survived by his wife, Katrina Williams Chaney of Iron Station; five sons, Dean Chaney and Jerry Chaney of Stanley, Randy Chaney of Lincolnton, Bobby Chaney of Virginia, and Steve Chaney of Bessemer City; two brothers, John Chaney of Cherryville and Jack Chaney of Kings Mountain; seven sisters, Peggy Childers, Lucille Glad-den, Loretta Owens, Sue Rhea and Sherry Short, all of Kings Mountain, Edith Millwood of Bessemer City and Dorothy Phillips of Riverdale, Ga.; and 12 grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Gaston County.

AUSTIN FALLS
Austin Anthony Falls, 71, died Friday at Kings Mountain Convalescent Center. A native of Cleveland Coun-ty, he was the son of the late William and Wynona Sanders Falls and a retired construc-tion worker. He was a member of Central United Methodist Church and a World War II veteran.

He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Mildred Falls of Shelby, and Mrs. Willie Howell and Mrs. Louise Blalock, both of Kings Moun-tain.

Services were conducted Sunday at 4 p.m. at Harris Funeral Home Chapel by the Rev. George Auman. Burial was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.
