KM Teams Will Be In Sectionals

For the first time this year, the N.C. High School Athletic Association is using a format similar to the NCAA to decide its finalists for the state tournaments.

There will be eight Sectional Tournaments played around the state in each of the four classifications (1-A, 2-A, 3-A, 4-A) and the winners of all those events will qualify for the state tournament.

In the 3-A division, seven boys and seven girls teams from the Southwestern 3-A Sectional Tournaments, but they will not be assigned to the same Sectional.

Sectional action will begin next week. The first two rounds of the sectionals will be played at various high schools around the state. Semi-finals and finals action will be played at previouslydesignated schools. In Western 3-A action, those previously-designated courts are at Gardner-Webb Col-

Conference will qualify for Statesville and Hickory high schools.

Kings Mountain's boys, fourth place finishers in the SWC, are scheduled to play their first game at the home court of the Big Six Conference's number two team. The winner of that game will advance against the winner of the game between the Foothills Conference number two and South Piedmont Conference number five teams.

The Kings Mountain girls, lege, and Asheville, fifth place finishers in the and play the number two a Sectional berth and the team from the Western seventh place team would Athletic Conference. The win- not. ner of that gme will advance against the winner of the SWC's number one and Big Six number five team.

The only thing that can change either of the KM team's present seeding would be if one of the eighth place teams from the SWC would qualify for the Sectional win this week's conference tournament at North Gaston. If that should happen, the
