SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A man was sitting in his new car, and his friends were pushing it. They were tired, hot and disgusted.

"Out of gas?" asked a stranger.

"No," answered the driver.

"Battery dead?" they wondered.

"No," he said, "everything's in good shape."

"Tell me," said the stranger, "what in the world is your trouble?"

"Confidentially," he replied, "I'm afraid to turn it on."

That is true of many Christians. Christ is in their hearts. He is able to defeat Satan and sin. With Him everything is possible. But they are afraid to turn on the power, and they go on living defeated lives.

Why be a victim when you can be a victor? Why be sad when you can be glad? Turn on the power! How?

Give yourselves completely to God, every part of you, and let Him have His way with you.
