LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Students Aren't Denied For Lack Of Finances

To the Editor:

I am writing this in response to a letter printed in the February 18th edition of the Herald concerning our annual fifth grade trip to Washington, D.C. for Bethware students.

Our trip is indeed designed to be an educational experience, and it is true that all students will not go. However, we urge all students to go and provide sponsors for any who need financial help. In the past we have either assisted or paid the full amount for many students and even some parents.

If students don't go it is due to their own choosing. The trip is always planned on a teacher work day so students don't miss school if they choose not to go.

I trust this clears up any negative thoughts that might be in anyone's mind concerning this trip.

Thank you.

Ronald Nanney,
Principal, Bethware School

children's room addition, the $15,000 work room and kitchenette and $5,000 work room, said Davis, who also acknowledged $9,000 in pledges from Neisler Foundation, O. Max Gardner Foundation, Mauney Hosiery Mills and Library trustees and employees.

Davis said that sponsors will be recognized with plaques that will hang in the appropriate rooms. He said that 400 letters went out to community leaders this week asking their support and announced that Dr. David McDaniel would head the professional campaign; Andrew Milewski and Carl DeVane the industrial phase of the drive, along with George Houser, Kemp Mauney and Rob Suber with other chairmen of various areas of the campaign to be named this week.

Prior to Davis' presentation, roast beef and chicken with all the trimmings was served, compliments of Kings Mountain financial institutions, and a slide presentation featuring Kings Mountain and the Library was given by Mrs. William Herndon, who wrote the script, the audio visuals prepared by Cleveland Technical College.

SELLING YOUR HOUSE
RUBY ALEXANDER CRS

WHEN PROSPECTS CALL

Prospective buyers seem to have their own timetables. They read real estate ads very early in the morning, and they usually want to call right away to get the first look at a promising property. If there's an address in the ad, or a For Sale by Owner sign on the lawn, they march up and ring the bell - at THEIR convenience. But there's no reason YOU have to be awakened by their telephone calls, or interrupted in the middle of dinner. Let a professional real estate agent do the initial screening for you.

When we advertise your house, we include OUR phone number and office hours, and we get the calls. In case of an open house, the hours are strictly circumscribed, and we will be there to run interference for you. We screen the people who respond to our ads. We find out if they really want to buy, if they really want a house like yours, and if they can afford it. You'll only see the live prospects.

It's easier to sell when you list with Alexander Realty, 739-1616.

Editors note: Ruby Alexander has recently earned the CRS designation (Certified Residential Specialist) from the Realtors National Marketing Institute.
