

Bridal Shower Honors Terri Plonk

Miss Terri Plonk, whose wedding to Marc Byers of Shelby takes place May 16th at 7:30 p.m. in Resurrection Lutheran Church, was honored April 27th at a bridal drop-in shower in the Fellowship Hall of Resurrection Lutheran Church.

Hostesses were Betty Ann Deal, Rita Cathey, both of Kings Mountain, Linda Williford of Gastonia and Barbara Atkins of Lincolnton.

Guests were Beauty Control consultants of Betty Plonk's unit of which the bride-elect is a member.

A pink and white motif was featured in decorative details. The refreshment table was decorated in pink and white with a pastel arrangement centering the table. Pink and white cake squares, punch, sausage balls and nuts were served from crystal appointments.

Miss Plonk was presented a pink and white corsage from the hostesses to wear with her party dress.

Guests called from 7 until 9 p.m. and showered the bride-to-be with gifts for her new home.

Bill Gault Retires From KM Hospital

W. V. (Bill) Gault, chief radiologic technologist at Kings Mountain Hospital, retired April 30, after 32 years of service to the hospital.

At a reception honoring Gault, Huitt Reep, hospital administrator, presented him with a South African Krugerrand gold coin and a plaque in appreciation of his years with the hospital. In making the presentation, Reep said "The hospital and the patients we serve are deeply indebted to Mr. Gault for his years of faithful service."

A native of Kings Mountain, Gault received his training in radiologic technology at Dell School of Medical Technology, Asheville. Prior to joining Kings Mountain Hospital, he worked for a medical clinic in Andrews and at St. Joseph's Hospital, Asheville.

He served a two year period in the U. S. Navy Reserve.

Gault and his wife, Elizabeth, have two children and make their home in Kings Mountain where they are members of First Baptist Church.

Free Screening Tests Offered At KM Hospital

Free screening tests will be offered by Kings Mountain Hospital next week as part of its observance of National Hospital Week, May 10-16.

Blood pressure checks, pulmonary functions (breathing) tests and blood typing will be done at the hospital by hospital staff members.

The tests will be available on Tuesday, May 12, Wednesday, May 13, and Thursday,

May 14, between the hours of 1-4 p.m.

Anyone, age 18 and older, who would like to take advantage of the screening programs should come to the hospital lobby and they will be directed to the screening sites.

For information about the screening tests, contact the hospital public relations department, 739-3601.
