drix of Hopkins, S.C. of Winston Salem, niece of bridegroom; Lori Treiber of Hopkins, S. C. college roommate of the bride; Dawn Ward of Morganton, college classmate of the bride; and Mrs. Gerald Worrell of Charlotte, college roommate of the bride.

Junior bridesmaid and flower girls were Stephanie Harris, Amalie Harris and Melisa Harris, nieces of the bridegroom. Ringbearer was James Ryan Hendrix, nephew of the bridegroom.

Bridal attendants wore long formals of rose pink styled similar to that of the maid's gown and carried spring bouquets.

The junior bridesmaid wore a floor length dress of rose pink with white eyelet overlay. She carried a miniature bouquet of mixed flowers.

The flower girls wore short pink dresses with white eyelet pinafores smocked in pink. Each carried a basket of mixed flowers.

The bridegrooms' father was best man.

Groomsmen were Steven Harris, Grayson Harris, brothers of the bridegroom; William Bates of Hendersonville, brother of the bride; John Underwood of Asheville, Daniel Houser of Winston Salem and Jeff Snoterly of Elkin.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a beautifully appointed reception at The Cedars in Hendersonville where the wedding theme was carried out in decorative details.

After a wedding trip to Hilton Head Island, S. C., the newlyweds will be at home in Winston Salem.

NONE FOR THE ROAD—The anti-drinking and driving safety theme, "None For The Road" was the first place winner in the 43rd annual National School Traffic Safety Program sponsored by the American Automobile Association and its Carolinas affiliate, AAA Carolina Motor Club, and the winner was senior Kyle Keeter of Watauga High School in Boone. Local schools had entries in the poster contest on the overall theme, "Buckle Your Seat Belts."
