tion and also a maximum for all jobs," said Chappell. Chappell said that the target date for presentation of the full recommendations by the special committee, appointed by the mayor, is August 24th. "We are confident that the item will be on the agenda for consideration by the board of commissioners on Sept. 8th," said Chappell.

The city board of commissioners will meet on June 29th in Council Chambers for a final review of the proposed 1987-88 city budget and on June 30th in Council Chambers for consideration of adoption of the budget. The pay plan and job classification update sets the stage for hiring of a first-time city personnel director. The board has received applications from 70 people and are beginning interviews for the position.

Man Shot Saturday At His Home

Henry McKelvie, of 816 E. King St., was shot during an early morning incident Saturday at his home. According to Kings Mountain Police, McKelvie answered at door bell about 12:57 a.m. and saw a suspect described as a white male standing outside. A second suspect, carrying a shotgun, walked up and McKelvie closed ed the door. When he went to the back door, someone fired a shotgun through the door, striking him in the left shoulder. McKelvie was treated at Kings Mountain Hospital and released, police said. The investigation is continuing.
