Do You Remember?

Do you remember?

The street lights up town...Gas pumps with the glass top that held 10 gallons...

Gas delivered to service stations, drained from a tank truck in 10-gallon cans and poured into a storage tank. All service stations were full-service. Gas 19 cents a gallon and oil 25 cents a quarter...

Tires five to eight dollars...Batteries 5 to 7 dollars... What about when you went to get a chicken for dinner, you went with the clerk to a coop out back of the store and picked out a live one. The clerk tied the chicken's legs together, cut a hole in a paper bag to poke the chicken's head through, and then tied the top of the bag around the chicken's legs. You killed and dressed the chicken...
