

MRS. TOMMY BUCHANAN

Donna Myers, Tom Buchanan
Wed Saturday At Macedonia

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ray Buchanan, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Charleston, S.C. and afterwards will be at home in Wilmore, Kentucky.

Miss Donna Lynn Myers became Mr. Buchanan's bride in a 2 p.m. ceremony in Macedonia Baptist Church at which Rev. Ervin Houser of High Point, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated at the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride and bridegroom wrote their own vows for the ceremony which included the impressive Unity Candle service and parents of the couple assisted in the lighting while Mike Woodberry sang, "Love Them While You Can", a song dedicated to their parents and written by the bride and bridegroom. During the ceremony, Kay Hambricht sang "Holy Ground" and joined Mike Woodberry in the duet, "Flesh Of My Flesh." The benedictional "Wedding Prayer" was sung by Mike Woodberry after the exchange of vows.

During the ceremony Jim Kale read I Corinthians 13:4-8.

The altar of the church was banked with greenery and arranged with white candles in 15-branch candelabrum and two seven-branch spiral candelabrum with the Unity Candle raised on a podium and centering aqua and yellow flowers with palms and ferns in the background.

Miss Delores White was organist for the program of wedding music. Eric Myers, brother of the bride, was oboist and vocalists were Mike Woodberry and Kay Hambricht.

Bob Myers escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's wedding gown was a sheath design of white satin taffeta fashioned with modified wedding band collar, sheer yoke front and back, pearl and Alencon lace trimmed bodice and shirred leg o'mutton sleeves with Alencon lace appliques on net. The focal point of the dress was the sheath skirt with Alencon lace medallions, Alencon lace-trimmed hem and draping at the back hip with two self rosettes that fell into a scalloped Alencon banded and edged attached chapel train. She wore a pearl tiara which held her illusion veil and blusher and carried a bouquet of aqua mist and pale yellow lilies and baby's breath arranged with pearls and ivy.

Mrs. Gail Smith of Kings Mountain was the bride's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Sharon Eaker of Cherryville, sister of the bridegroom; Ms.
