91-Year-Old KM Woman Growing Lemons In Yard

Carrie Grigg, 91, has a lemon tree in her backyard hanging full of lemons.

Neighbors and "Granny" Grigg's family say the lemons taste like lemon-lime. Mrs. Grigg has served lemonade from the tall lemon tree which is bearing fruit for the third season.

Mrs. Grigg, life long resident of Kings Mountain, got started with her lemon tree hobby about 10 years ago when the late Big Bill Reynolds brought her lemons from Florida. She planted the seed in a flower pot on the front porch.

"I really don't have a green thumb", she says, "But I knew if the good Lord wanted those lemons to produce they would and sure enough it did."

The mother of 10 children, eight of whom are living, Mrs. Grigg is a former textile mill employee and widow of H.L. Grigg who died at 84. She is a member of Tabernacle of Love. She likes to see Jimmy Swaggard on television and other religious programs and "Matt Dillon" of Gunsmoke is her favorite TV personality. Her family is encouraging her to go to the Cleveland County Fair next week but Mrs. Grigg hasn't decided if she wants to make the trip. Although she has a hearing problem, Mrs. Grigg loves visitors and talks of the "good ole days" growing up in Kings Mountain and recalls taking her family to the county fair in a mule-drawn wagon. "We took the children and picnic baskets and spent the day on Saturday" she said.

Mrs. Grigg's children are Helen Moss, Eloise Huffstetter, Faye McInnis, with whom she makes her home, all of Kings Mountain, Ruby Ellis of Gaffney, S.C., Gene Grigg of Shelby, Sam Grigg, Rev. Jerry Grigg and Bud Grigg, all of Gastonia. She has 39 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren and three great grandchildren.
