Jayvees Whip Bessemer City

Kings Mountain High's jayvee footballers posted their second win in eight outings Thursday night at Bessemer City, 14-6.

Coach Paul Bolt's Mountaineers close out the season Thursday at 7 p.m. at East Rutherford against a Cavalier team that is 1-7.

"Our kids have played well all season," said Coach Bolt. "Thursday's game should be a good one. If we go up there and give a good effort, good things will happen for us." Kings Mountain grabbed a 14-0 lead last week at Bessemer City before the Yellow Jackets scored late in the game on a 70-yard punt return.

The Mountaineers grabbed an 8-0 lead in the first half when Scottie Hopper scored on an 11-yard run and then ran up the middle for a two-point conversion.

The Mountaineers scored their final touchdown in the third period when Scott Belcher recovered a BC fumble in the endzone.

Coach Polt cited Hopper, D.J. Williams and Daniel Honeycutt for their running and Reggie Moss and Reggie Gamble for their offensive line play. The KM defense was led by Gamble, Moss, Marlo Smith, Honeycutt, Belcher, Hopper, Timmy McClain, Steve Robbins, Jon Reid and Dale McClain.

Booster's Club To Sponsor NWA Wrestling At KM Community Center

The Kings Mountain High Booster's Club will sponsor NWA wrestling Thurs., Nov. 12 at 8:15 p.m. at the Kings Mountain Community Center. All profits will go toward supporting the various athletic programs at the high school.

Highlighting the card will be a world championship match between the Rock 'N Roll Express and Arn Anderson and Tully Blanchard.

Jimmy "Boogie Woogie Man" Valiant and Buggy McGraw will battle the Mod Squad, Mighty Wilbur will take on Ivan Koloff, Kendall Windham will wrestle Thunderfoot Number One, the Cuban Connection will face the Samurai Warriors, and Rocky King will fight Gladiator Number One.

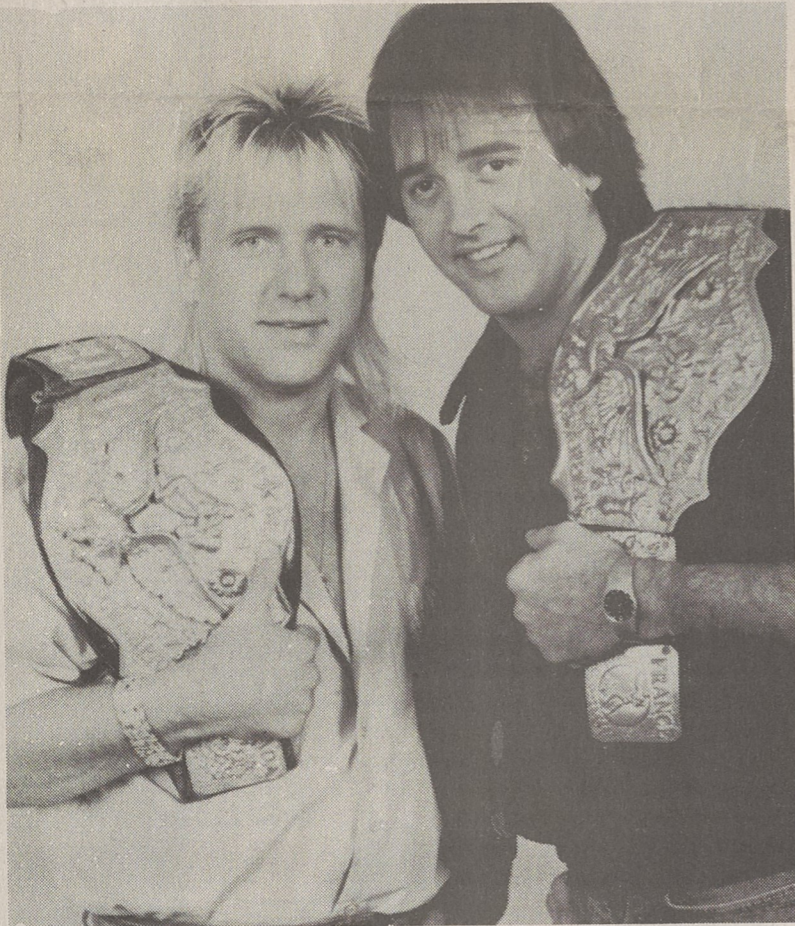

Advance tickets are on sale at the high school, Rick's Ole Country Store, Home Savings and Loan, and Sagesport. Ringside seats are $10 and general admission $8.

Boosters To Meet Monday

The Kings Mountain High Booster's Club will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at B.N. Barnes Auditorium.

Final plans for the NWA wrestling card to be presented November 12 at the Community Center will be discussed. All committee members should be present.

All members are prospective members are urged to attend.

KM Youths Split Prize

Patrick Heavner of 111 Country Club Drive and Lee Ann Wilson of 107 North Piedmont Avenue picked 17 of 20 winners and guessed the same number of points on the tie-breaker game to share the $100 prize in last week's Herald football contest.

Both contestants predicted that 33 points would be scored in the Kings Mountain-South Pont game, which South Pont won 17-9.

Both missed the East Rutherford-Chase, Burns-R-S Central and Clemson-N.C. State games.

The ninth of 10 weekly contests is on pages 8 and 9-B of today's Herald. To be eligible to win, you must follow all rules and return the entry to us by 4 p.m. Friday. The entry may be mailed to Football Contest, P.O. 769, Kings Mountain, N.C. 28086, or brought by our office on Canterbury Road.
