

OBITUARIES

ALICE McCLUNEY

Funeral services for Alice Kathleen McCluney, 62, of Route 4, who died Wednesday in the Kings Mountain Hospital, were conducted Sunday at 2 p.m. from Vestibule AME Zion Church by Rev. Walter L. Adams, interment following in the church cemetery.

A native of Lockhart, S.C., she was the daughter of the late Tanksley and Chesterfield Roberts McCluney. She was a member of the deaconess board, senior choir, and missionary society at Vestibule AME Zion Church.

Surviving are her son, Quincy McCluney of Kings Mountain; two sisters, Inez James of Kings Mountain and Bessie Foster of Shelby; and four grandchildren.

OSCAR F. LOVELACE

Funeral services for Oscar F. Lovelace, 81, of Route 2, who died Friday in Cleveland Memorial Hospital, were conducted Sunday at 3 p.m. from Oak Grove Baptist Church of which he was a member.

Rev. Ron Caulder and Rev. Roland Leath officiated and interment was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Lovelace was a Cleveland County native, son of the late Perry and Melissa Jolley Lovelace. He was a farmer.

Surviving are his wife, Arcie Bell Lovelace; a son, Billy Lovelace of Kings Mountain; two daughters, Lillian Harmon and Carolyn Lail of Kings Mountain; a sister, Eldee Alexander of Kings Mountain; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

CHARLIE TAYLOR

Funeral services for Charlie Jones Taylor, 68, of 809 Ellison St., who died Tuesday in the Kings Mountain Hospital, will be conducted Thursday at 3 p.m. from Harris Funeral Home Chapel by Elder E.H. Simpson and Rev. Richard King, interment following in Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Mr. Taylor was a native of Gaston County, son of Hunter William Taylor, who survives, and the late Dora Hudson Taylor. He was a retired textile employee and a veteran of World War II.

Surviving, in addition to his father, are his wife, Sadie Mae Goins Taylor; one son, Charles Taylor of Kings Mountain; three daughters, Ellen Smith of Blacksburg, S.C., Faye Hamrick of Shelby and Rachel Russell of Kings Mountain; one brother, Hunter Taylor of Kings Mountain; three sisters, Hatie Mullinax of Clover, S.C., Aileen McBride of Winston Salem and Susie Moore of Earl; 12 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The body was taken to the home Wednesday morning and the family will receive friends Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

two volunteers assigned to the home were Frances Caveny and Mabel Carpenter. "No family could have had such fine friends and such support", said Mrs. Fulton, who plans to volunteer herself.

Cleveland County Hospice opened Oct. 1, 1985 and has served 163 patient families since, over 1200 people. The patient load runs between 20 and 27 with 18 patient families being served at the present time. Hospice has served patients between the ages of 23 and 95.

Offices of Hospice are located at 201 West Marion Street, Suite 306, in Shelby and tax-deductible donations can be forwarded to that address.

Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. from Mountain Rest Cemetery.

Funeral Services were held Wednesday morning at 11 a.m. from Elise Presbyterian Church, Robbins, of which he was an Elder, by Rev. C. Gene Booker.

A native of Moore County, Mr. Alexander was married to the late Frances Plonk Alexander of Kings Mountain. He was a graduate of Duke University and Emory University School of Dentistry and practiced dentistry in Robbins for 30 years before retirement. He also formerly taught school at Elise Academy and was a principal at Carthage and Highfalls Schools. He was a past president of Fayetteville Presbytery and Men of the Church and was past president of Robbins Merchants Association. He was a member of Elise Masonic Lodge, Oasis Temple and Woodmen of the World. He was past chairman of the board of trustees of Sandhills Community College for 16 years.

Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Becky A. Kirkland of Raleigh; two brothers, Lewis Alexander of Elkin and Hugh Q. Alexander of Kannapolis; and one granddaughter.

Memorials may be made to Elise Presbyterian Church, Robbins, N.C. or to Sandhills Community College, 2200 Airport, Pinehurst, 28374.
