

Foul Play Ruled Out

Margaret Roseboro, 46, of 209 Orr Terrace, died of burns and not from foul play, according to an autopsy report.

Sunday morning, Nov. 22, a neighbor who smelled smoke, discovered the body lying in the hallway floor of her apartment at 10:47 a.m.

Kings Mountain police speculate that the fire started in a chair where the woman was sitting.

Police believe Mrs. Roseboro was alone when the fire began since the doors to her apartment were bolted from the inside. The cause of the fire is still unknown.

Shooting Accident Kills Youth

A shotgun accidentally discharged Sunday night by Glenn Arns, 16 Meadow Lane, unloading the 12 gauge shotgun while sitting on his living room couch, injured his two-year-old daughter's hand.

According to Lt. G.M. Funk of the Cleveland County Sheriff's Department, the gun accidentally discharged and shot off the girl's first finger of her left hand.

The youngster was transferred to Charlotte Orthopedic Hospital where she underwent surgery during the night and was released Monday morning. No charges were filed against the father.

INDUSTRIES TO BUILD IN INDUSTRIAL PARK—Three area industries are moving to KM Industrial Park. From left, Joe Williams, Mayor John Moss, Charles Bridges, and Marvin Foy point to the area where Preparation Machinery Services of Shelby, M&M Electric Co. of Gastonia and Custom Metals Fabrication of Kings Mountain plan new plants which would mean more jobs to the area and enlarged facilities for the high-tech companies.

KM Industries To Expand

trol systems for other machinery manufacturers all over the Southeast, licensed in all Southern states", he said. His firm specializes in machine wiring and all phases of electrical contracts, power distribution and wiring. Now located at 1811 West Franklin Avenue in Gastonia, the firm will move its operation to KM Industrial Park in about six months after completion of a 10,000 square foot facility with 3,000 feet additionally for office space. His firm, which now employs 20, would expand to 25 initially.

Mayor Moss described the industrial developers as high tech industry and said that all three specialized in fields related to industry and do research development in their specific fields. "We are delighted with their announcement," he said.

THE EMPTY NESTERS

There comes a time in the life of most families when the children move away - to college, to their own homes, to marriage - leaving Mom and Dad with more space than they need. Heating bills and taxes may be oversize, too.

Little wonder that many couples are choosing to move to smaller, more comfortable homes. Sometimes they trade space for luxury, getting greater amenities than they could afford in a large house.

Wherever they are going to move, these "empty nesters" want to get maximum return on their home equity in order to pay for the next home, or provide investment income for retirement. That's where we come in. We've got the real estate experience and knowhow to market your property efficiently, getting you the best possible price quickly enough so you can transfer your equity where you want it.

You can depend on the real estate professionals at Alexander Realty 739-1616.
