MRS. DALE CHAMBERS

Ashley Moss, Dale Chambers Married At Second Baptist

Second Baptist Church was the setting Dec. 12th for the wedding of Ashley Dawn Moss and Dale Lee Chambers.

Rev. Eugene Land officiated at the double-ring ceremony for which wedding music was presented by Bob Cashion, organist; Patrick Washburn, pianist; Ted Ford, guitarist; and Mike Chambers and Teresa Falls, vocalists.

An arch of spiral candelabra enhanced the setting which was banked with palms and red and white Christmas poinsettias. A Unity candle centered the setting.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown by Mori Lee of white taffeta and jeweled Alencon lace designed with wedding band collar which extended to a front and back yoke of English net. Jeweled Alencon lace embellished the front and back bodice and shirring created a double pouf on the leg o'mutton sleeves. Jeweled lace applied the long cuffs of the gown and window motifs of jeweled lace enhanced the front and back of the long skirt which flowed from basque waist. Cutout bands of jeweled Alencon lace enhanced the petal Chapel train. She wore a derby picture hat of Alencon and Schiffler lace with a pouf and single tier filament edged veil. She carried a white bouquet of sweetheart roses, white stephanotis, and red miniature carnations with variegated English holly and baby's breath.

Stephanie Moss attended her sister as honor attendant and Sonja Ford of Cherryville and Amy Ford of Kings Mountain, cousins of the bride; Karen Greene of Grover, Autumn Moss of Conway, S.C. and Carrie Moss of Kings Mountain, cousins of the bride, were bridal attendants.

Chrisse Moss, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Rex Tucker, brother of the bride, was ringbearer.

Ray Bridges of Kings Mountain was best man for the bridegroom. Mike Chambers and Jeff Bridges, brothers of the bridegroom, and Reggie Moss, brother of the bride, Rodney Sellers and Jeff Patterson were groomsmen.

The bride's mother chose a long formal teal gown with corsage of sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a long formal blue crepe gown with corsage of sweetheart roses.

Mary Bowen presided at the register and Aaron Ford and Jairus Laughter distributed programs.

Jonathan Laughter distributed ricebags.

All the attendants wore red satin sheaths featuring natural waist and short shirred puffed sleeves. The sweetheart neckline was enhanced with triple layers of satin tucking. The waist and long straight skirt were complimented by short front peplum dropping to long length in the back. A satin bow in front completed the regal look of the gown.

The bride's parents hosted the reception after the ceremony in the church fellowship hall where the holiday red and white theme of the wedding was carried out in decorative details.

The bride is the daughter of Reggie and Kay Moss of Kings Mountain and granddaughter of Maggie Ford and the late Wade Ford and Eva Moss and the late J.D. Moss. She is a 1986 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School, attended Gaston College and is employed by Rapid Distributing Co.

The bridegroom is the son of Ray D. and Evelyn Bridges of Kings Mountain. Coleen Wright, aunt of the bridegroom, was honored as honorary grandparent in the wedding party. He is employed by Dupont Company.

The bridegroom is a 1983 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School.

The newlyweds have returned from a wedding trip to Charleston, S.C. and are residing at 814 Landing Street in Kings Mountain.

Parties Honor Couple

Miss Ashley Dawn Moss and Dale Lee Chambers were honored at several parties prior to their wedding on Dec. 12th.
