Things That Would Make 1988 Great

- Happy New Year!
- Things I'd like to see accomplished in Kings Mountain in 1988, and not in any order of priority:
- Shorter Council meetings and change of meeting nights from Tuesday to Monday.
 - All law suits against the City settled.
 - The Kings Mountain Law Enforcement Center moving to the Old Post office building and the KM Historical Society and the KM Chamber of Commerce moving in the Old City Hall, where the Police Department is now located.
 - More people utilizing the KM Community Center and more events scheduled there for community participation.
 - Continuance of the anti-drug campaign launched by KM Police during 1987 until all drug offenders are off the streets.
 - A new city manager on duty at City Hall.
 - People filling churches on Sunday mornings for both Sunday School and 11 a.m. worship services.
 - Everyone joining in a clean-up effort to make the city look good.
 - Industry continuing on the ups wing and more mills running six and seven days a week.
 - More jobs and more industry coming into town and more involvement by the Chamber of Commerce led by the newly created economic development committee.
 - Progress in the development of a hydro plant on Moss Lake, a Metropolitan water district, a huge sewer complex serving a wide area of Gaston County, including Kings Mountain and a KM Corporate Center.
 - More activity at the Senior Citizens Center and additional senior clubs formed at churches all over the area.
 - More activity for youth of all ages.
 - More building of homes and businesses in the area.
 - Revitalization of downtown Kings Mountain.
 - Shoppers shopping at home and supporting downtown retailers.
 - Pay raises for all hardworking employees.
 - Warm clothes, shelter and food for the needy.
 - Another successful United Fund campaign.
