Wrestlers
Lose 35-30
At Burns

Kings Mountain High's wrestlers fell to Burns 35-30 in their opening Southwestern 3-A Conference match Tuesday night at Burns.

The loss left the Mountaineers with a 4-1 overall mark. They host North Gaston Thursday at 7 p.m.

"We were flip-flopping, moving people around, and I guess we didn't do the right thing," said KMHS Coach Steve Moffitt, whose team defeated Burns in an earlier contest. "Burns was fired up and more intense and really wanted the victory."

The Mountaineers, defending SWC champions, won only five of the 13 matches but all of their wins were by pins. The difference in points came in the first scheduled match when the Mounties had to forfeit to Burns' Shannon Price in the 103-pound class.

"All we can hope for now is that someone can knock them off," Moffitt said. "If so, maybe we can pull back in there and win or share the conference title."

THE RESULTS

103 - Shannon Price (B) won by forfeit; 112 - John Turner (KM) pinned Eric Pena second period; 119 - Tony Parker (KM) pinned Kevin Kee third period; 125 - Chris Peeler (B) dec. Johnny Nations; 130 - Brian Russ (B) dec. Brady Goforth; 135 - Chris Henson (KM) pinned Tony Whisnant first period; 140 - Jacob Sigmon (B) maj. dec. over Scott Belcher; 145 - Daron Schenck (B) pinned Jeffrey Fowler first period; 152 - Jeremy Schenck (B) dec. Anthony Hillman; 160 - Bishop Rouse (B) maj. dec. over Thurman Young; 171 - Wes Leonhardt (B) pinned Dallas Stacey; 189 - Jason Dover (KM) pinned Allen Dellinger first period; Hwt. - Mark Crawford (KM) pinned Mike Herron first period.
