Revival Scheduled In Grover

Rev. Eugene Ridley will lead revival services at Allen Memorial Baptist Church, Long Branch Road, Grover, February 8-11 at 7:30 p.m.

Ridley is serving as pastor of Long Leaf Baptist Church in Wilmington. Having been a full-time evangelist, he has preached many revivals, conferences and also has preached in several foreign countries. He has been on the North Carolina Pastor's Conference program and the Southern Baptist Convention Pastor's Conference.

Special singing will be presented each evening. The public is invited.

Divorce, Remarriage Study Set

Rev. Bob Collins, pastor of Kings Mountain Baptist Church, will be leading a special study on Divorce and Remarriage Sunday from 6-8 p.m. at the church at 101 West Mountain Street.

Rev. Collins has spent many years studying and researching the subject and has written a number of papers and articles on it.

Purpose of Sunday's study is to bring understanding and healing to those who have gone through divorce and remarriage, Rev. Collins said.

The public is invited to attend.

APPEALS TO TRUCKERS—Preacher Dorman McKinney of Texas appeals to truckers entering and leaving Kings Mountain Truck Plaza on I-85 to help with the abortion issue Tuesday. McKinney recently took part in the anti-abortion march in Washington, D.C., and stopped in Kings Mountain for several days to deliver his message by way of signs which were displayed across from the truck stop. He said he made his appeal to travelers because appeals to church and government leaders fell on deaf ears.

KM Southern Arts Society To Give $1,000 Scholarship

The Southern Arts Society of Kings Mountain at its business meeting January 26 voted to give a $1,000 visual arts scholarship beginning this year.

Scholarship committee members are Edie Bridges, Shirley Brutko, A.B. Snow and Selena Trott.

Income from the sale of the art groups' silk screened calendars will be used for this purpose. Months for the 1989 calendar were chosen by the arts. Artists contributing to the 1988 calendar were: cover, Johnnie M. Reavis; January, A.B. Snow; February, Edie Bridges; March, Mary Weir; April, Bonita Low; May, Bonnie Price; June, Selena Trott; July, Amber Tate; August, Margaret Dixon; September, Manley Hayes; October, Barbara Chaffee; November, Nancy Cloninger; December, Shirley Brutko.

Several professional artists were reviewed and plans put in force to obtain them to hold workshops in Kings Mountain. The workshops are paid for by the art group and often only a small materials fee is required to take the course.

Anyone interested in attending the workshops, joining the group, or purchasing one of the calendars may contact A.B. Snow Studio.
