Mom's Morning Out Set

Each Saturday morning during the month of February, Coach Larry Sipe and his Kings Mountain High basketball players will be offering their annual "Mom's Morning Out" programs to youngsters in grades one through five at the KMHS gym.

The coach and players will be offering drills and practice in the fundamentals of basketball. There is no charge.

Participating youngsters must wear sneakers and bring a basketball. The time is from 10 a.m. until 12 noon.

"Come and expect a good time," said Coach Sipe. "We hope to see every first through fifth grade student in the school system."

ESC Taking Job Applications

The Employment Security Commission is taking applications for the Individual Referral Program funded through the Job Training Partnership Act.

Eligibility is based on family income from the last six months. Goal of the program is to provide unemployed, economically disadvantaged residents of Cleveland County the opportunity to gain marketable skills by getting classroom training in a choice of the following areas: computer programming, secretarial programs, bookkeepers, auto body and auto mechanics, electricians, heating and air conditioning, plumbing, machinist and welding.

Apply at the ESC, 300 Grover Street, Suite 4, Shelby on Mondays through Fridays from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. For more information, call Vicki Banks at 482-7741.
