

SHEILA LOUISE CHERRY

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED -- The engagement of Sheila Louise Cherry to David Kish Hambricht is announced by her parents Leonard Ray Cherry Sr. of Belmont and Margaret Davis Cherry of Catawba Heights. She is a graduate of East Gaston High School and Central Piedmont Community College, Charlotte, and is employed by Larry R. Holt, D.D.S. of Hickory. David is the son of Hillard Kish and Phyllis Hambricht of Kings Mountain. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and N. C. State University where he was a member of Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity. He is employed by First Citizens Bank in Raleigh and is currently serving as a captain in the N.C. Army National Guard. The couple plans a March 26 wedding.

Luncheon Given For Ann Davis

Ann Davis, bride-elect of Billy Eldridge, was honored at a bridal luncheon Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Kerns. Hostesses were Mrs. Faye Kerns, Mrs. Lisa Ramey and Mrs. Penny Anthony.

Upon arrival, Miss Davis was presented a corsage of red carnations and white baby's breath. The dining room was elegantly decorated in festive red and white. Each table had a centerpiece of red carnations and white zinnias. Red tapered candles accented the centerpiece arrangements.

Guests were served mulled cider and nuts as horsd'ouvres. The meal consisted of a coneaed strawberry salad, broccoli with cheese sauce, southerwester risotto, and chicken salad casserole. Yeast rolls accompanied the meal. Cherries Jubilee was served as dessert.

After enjoying lunch together, the hostesses presented Ann with kitchen linens and a gift in her chosen stainless pattern. Other guests also showered her with kitchen linens.

Special guests included the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Kay Davis, and her sister, Pat.

'The Velveteen Rabbit' Slated By KMLT

Jim Champion is the director and Lynn Echols the musical director for the upcoming play "The Velveteen Rabbit" to be presented at Central School March 3-6. Thirty six children and five adults are in the play.

Champion has been active in Kings Mountain Little Theatre since 1970. He is its former president and he has worked, either as an actor, director, or in set design or construction in almost every play since. "The Velveteen Rabbit" is his first children's show.

At KMLT, Champion has directed "Finishing Touches", "Mousetrap", "Whodunit", and "A Murder Is Announced." He has acted in "Harvey", "Bus Stop", "Blythe Spirit", "Ten Little Indians" and "The Golden Grotto."

Champion is married to the former Kris Humphries and they have a four-year-old daughter, Sara. He is employed as Quality Control Supervisor at KMG Minerals.

Mrs. Echols is a graduate of Appalachian State University with a Bachelor in Music Education degree with a concentration in voice. She has served as choir director at Antioch Baptist Church in Blacksburg, S.C. for five years and has worked in the Kings Mountain District Schools as accompanist of the junior and senior high choral groups for the past three years. She is currently the music teacher at Bethware, Grover and West elementary schools. She is married to Tim Echols and has two children, Lee, six, and Lane, three. They are active members of Bethlehem Baptist Church.

Kings Mountain Little Theatre is supported, in part, by a grant from the grassroots arts program of the North Carolina Arts Council.

Shelby Students To Present 'The Wiz'

Shelby High School will present the award-winning Broadway musical "The Wiz" March 10-12 at 8 p.m. in Brown Auditorium on the school campus.

"The Wiz" won seven Tony awards in 1975, including best musical, and played for over two years. The Shelby High version will feature a cast, crew, chorus, and orchestra of over 70 students who will rehearse for six weeks before the opening.

Shelby senior Kim Harris will play the leading role of Dorothy, with Rodney Leigh as the Tinman, Curtis Glenn as the Scarecrow, Lonnie Tucker as the Cowardly Lion, and Stephen Johnson as The Wiz. Other major roles include Kim Benjamin as Aunt Em, Annette Benjamin as Addaperle, Margaret Tally as Evillene, and Wayne Gladden as Glinda.

"The Wiz" will involve a variety of performing art students under the direction of Kerry Maher. Musical Coordinator is Michael Sisk, with vocal direction by Traci

Eaves, orchestra direction by Edward Allison, choreography by Terri Byers and Waynette Gladden, technical direction by Rick Hamrick, and state management by Cindy Lohr.

Tickets are $3 in advance and $4 at the door, and are available at Shelby High, All-American Fabrics, Suttles Drugs, and from cast and crew members. For more information, contact Kerry Maher at 482-3409.
