Poet To Read Selections March 1 At G-Webb

Boiling Springs...Ron Rash of Pendleton, S.C., the 1986 winner of the Robert Park Poetry Prize awarded by the Academy of American Poets, will read selections from his poetry Monday, March 1, at Gardner-Webb College, Boiling Springs, N.C. The reading is open to the public and will begin at 7 p.m. in the college's library seminar room.

Rash will also read selections from his short story, "The Night the New Jesus Fell to Earth in Cliffside, North Carolina," a story that recently won him the General Electric Foundation Award for Younger Writers and was published in A Carolina Literary Companion. His poetry and fiction have been published in other publications, including the Kansas Quarterly, Kennasaw Review, Southern Humanities Review, Southern Poetry Review, and Wisconsin Review.

A 1976 graduate of Gardner-Webb, Rash is a candidate for the Ph.D. degree from the University of Georgia and an instructor at Pendleton Community College.

He and his wife, Ann, have one daughter, Caroline. Rash is the son of Sue Holder Rash of Boiling Springs and the late James H. Rash.

Brown Lung Assistance Offered

North Carolina attorneys Paul J. Michaels, John Alan Jones and Greg Martin have helped more than a thousand victims of brown lung disease receive Workers' Compensation and other benefits since 1975.

Symptoms of brown lung include coughing, difficult breathing and a tight chest.

Their law firm has set up a toll free telephone number for free consultations:

Lisa Selected To Dean's List

Lisa M. Hambright of Grover was named to the fall semester dean's list at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Undergraduate students carrying six or more semester hours are eligible for the dean's list if they earn a grade point ratio of 3.5 or better and have no grade lower than a C for the semester.

ON DEAN'S LIST

Miss Karen Penner, Kings Mountain junior at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, was listed on the Fall semester dean's list. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O.G. Penner.

HIGH Q TEAM—Pictured are members of the High Q Team at KMSHS which participated in Super Saturday, the qualifying round of the High-Q tournament at Central Piedmont Community College in Charlotte. Although the local team didn't place in the top 16 teams among 400 students for the second round of competition Coach Joel Rountree said he was highly pleased with their performance. Front row, from left, Kenny Potts, Hank Cathey, captain, and Bethan Faust, scorer; Back row, from left, J.B. Cissell, Wray Murray, Will Hula and Chris Goforth alternate.

Television Series Slated By Cleveland College

Tax Line '88, a six week television series, will be broadcast by Cleveland Community College on the weekly State to State program, which is available locally on Vision Cable Channel 22, on Thursdays, 9 to 10 p.m.

Tax Line '88 will feature tax experts from the internal Revenue Service who will answer viewer questions live. The series will air from 9 to 10 p.m. Thursday February 18, February 23, March 10, March 17 and March 24.

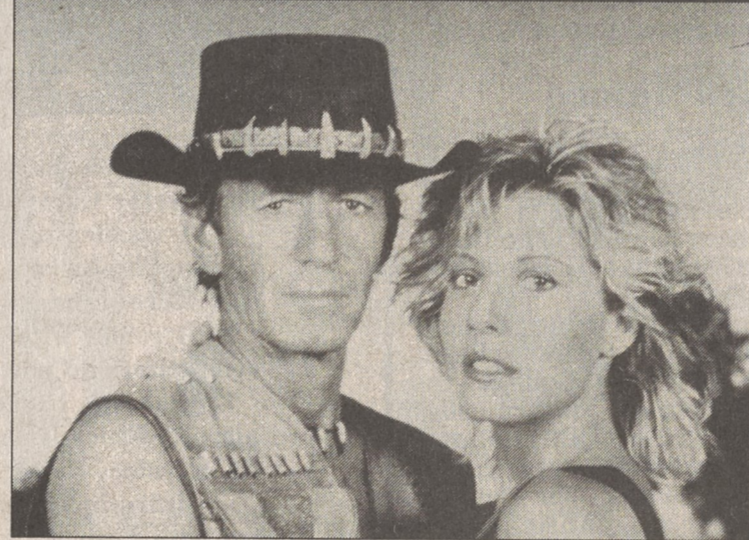

"The Tax Reform Act of 1986 made sweeping changes in the federal tax system—changes that will affect every taxpayer in the nation. While it's up to taxpayers to know which of these changes affect their taxes, the IRS wants to help and is pleased to present programs such as TAX LINE '88" said IRS spokesman Steven J. Pyrek.

Subscribers can call in any questions they might have as they prepare their 1987 tax returns. Viewers can videotape the programs to use as a reference when they complete their returns.

For more information, call CCC at 484-4025.
