

MRS. JOHN E. BRIDGES Susan McNeill

McNeill-Bridges Pair Married In Lincolnton

First United Methodist Church of Lincolnton was the setting Feb. 20th for the 3 p.m. wedding uniting Miss Susan Rike McNeill and John Edgar Bridges.

Rev. Bill Haire and R.v.
Frank Cook officiated at the double-ring ceremony for which wedding music was presented by Mrs. Cecil Brown.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a candlelight gown of peau finish taffeta designed with a sheer marquisette yoke, lace, mandarin collar and long tapered bridal sleeves edged in lace. The empire line gown with fitted bodice had an overlay of Venice and Schiffli lace which fell in a capelett effect. The A-line skirt which extended into a chapel length train was hemmed in the matching scalloped lace. Her two tier veil with emproided scalloped edging was held by a Victorian hat edged with matching lace and patterned with seed pearls. The crown of the hat held a cluster of silk flowers to one side and a soft pouf of illusion at the back. She carried a romantic cascade of pink thumbelina candlelight roses, alstromeria lilies, stephanotis, lavender freezia, gypsophilia and pettipoint ivy.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father. Groomsmen were Kevin C.
Bridges of Kings Mountain, brother of the bridegroom;
John C. McNeill of Charlotte, brother of the bridegroom; Edward J. Lewis of Lake Norman.

Ms. Kristi Kiger of Shelby, cousin of the bride, and Ms. Stephanie Dalton of Charlotte were honor attendants.

The two attendants wore tea length gowns of wine, scalloped edged lace over a matching slip of satin. They carried nosegays alstromeria, lilies, pink miniature carnations,

There's a better way to save.

When you put your hard earned money in a mattress, all it does is sleep. What you want is to put it to work for you, earning interest, and that's where our many savings plans, money market accounts, IRAs and CDs come in. They're all high interest-earners and each offers the added protection of being insured by the government for up to $100,000. (That's something your mattress won't do.) We have savings plans that will fit your needs and budget and we'll be glad to tell you about them. Stop in anytime.
