Concert May 5 At Huss

The 50-voice Gaston County Choral Society will present an All-American Music Concert on Thursday, May 5, at Hunter Huss High School Auditorium in Gastonia.

The public is invited and admission is $2.50 for adults and $1 for children under 12 and senior citizens.

Mary McFadden will direct the chorus and Barbara Crowder will be accompanist.

Featured on the program will be "Song of Democracy", "God Bless America", "American Medley", "I Hear America Singing" and "Chorale Montage" from "Showboat."

For more information contact Bertie Page Watson at 865-1636.

Violet Dixon Is Retiring

Mrs. Violet Dixon, retiring Friday after nearly 38 years with the Employment Security Commission, will be honored at a reception from 2 until 4:30 p.m. at the ESC office at the Community Center.

Mrs. Dixon's co-workers from the Kings Mountain and Shelby offices are hosting the open house.

Mrs. Dixon's family and friends will also be on hand to join in the celebration.

Blalock Reunion Set At El Bethel

The annual reunion of the family of Lawson Goforth and Ferrie Whisnant Blalock will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. at El Bethel United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

Descendants and friends are invited to bring a well-filled picnic basket of food and to enjoy lunch and a business session afterwards to organize and elect officers. Cups, plates, napkins, utensils and ice will be furnished.

All Blalocks in the area are invited to attend so that plans can be made to hold annual meetings of the clan.

MEETING

The city recreation committee will meet Tuesday night at 7 p.m. at City Hall in Council Chambers.

REUNION

Descendants of John L. Roberts will hold the annual reunion Sunday, May 1, at Antioch Community Center in Grover. Picnic lunch will be spread at 1 p.m.

ROTARY CLUB

Ed Hamilton, president and chief executive officer of First National Bank of Shelby, will speak on "What Is Important In Life" at Thursday's meeting of the Kings Mountain Rotary Club at 12 noon at the Holiday Inn. Edward Heine is program chairman.
