

Rotary Majors Leader

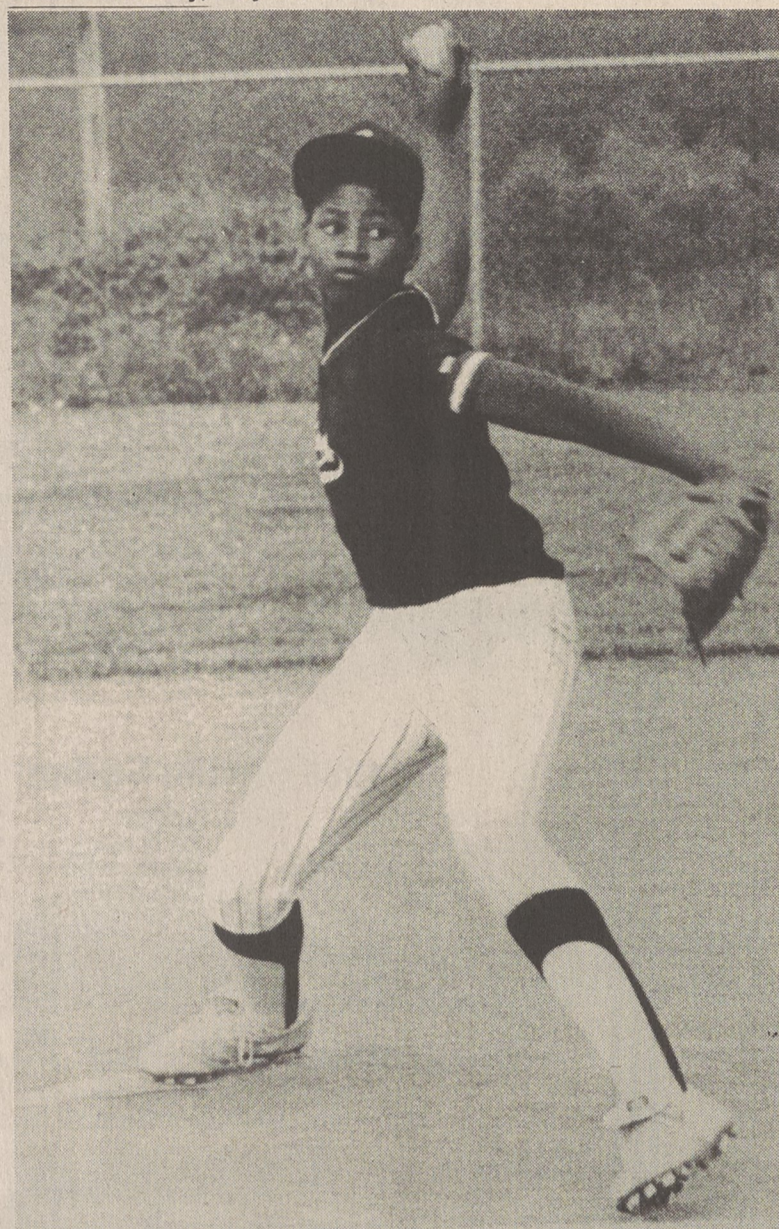

Rotary fell to Lions 7-4 but held on to its one-game lead in local Dixie Youth Major League baseball action Monday night at Jake Early Memorial Park.

Rotary, 5-2, will play Home Federal Savings and Loan Thursday at 7:30. The Lions face Hardees at 6 p.m.

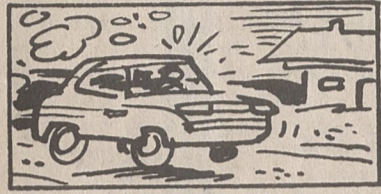

Sharee Hopper hurled the win and also went 3-for-3, including a homer, to lead the Lions. Brandon Putnam and Michael Cobb added two hits each for the winners and Timmy Harrelson was 2-for-3 and Bryan Leftwich, Travis Queen and Kelly Ware added one hit each for Rotary.

Rotary whipped Hardees 22-8 last Thursday. Leftwich was the winning pitcher.

Harrelson led the Rotary plate attack with a perfect 5-for-5. Kyle Sellers and Bobby Peterson were 4-for-5 each and Sellers hit a home run. Queen and Leftwich were 2-for-3 each, Patterson 3-for-4, and Ware and Josh Newton had two hits each.

BB&T Wins Contest

BB&T's T-Ball team sold the most tickets to collect $50 for a team party in the recent Dixie Youth Baseball League promotion.

The BB&T team is coached by Kevin Walker, Bob Suber and Randy Harrelson.

Daniel Mauney sold 100 tickets to collect the $25 cash prize.

Bobby Roberts, coach of the Wade Ford team, pulled the winning tickets.

First place went to Bert Moore, 313 Pinehurst Drive, who won $100 worth of gasoline.

Second place went to Frank Beard, Route 1, Box 112, who won a $50 gift certificate from Western Auto Store.

Third place went to Dean

Bullock, Route 6, Box 80, who won a $25 gift certificate from Western Auto Store.

All winners should contact Mack Lefevers at the Western Auto Store in Kings Mountain to claim your prizes.

The Kings Mountain Dixie Youth Baseball League would like to thank everyone for their support to help make the ticket sale a success.

Members of the BB&T team are John Goforth, Robbie Walker, Brad Short, Kendrick Bell, Jeremiah Moore, Brad Bridges, Julius Curry, Collin Goforth, Hunter Suber, Suzie Buckner, Chris Morgan, Bubba Brown, Justin Harrelson and Marty Goforth.

BIG TROPHIES—Ricky Greene of Kings Mountain is pictured with two large trophies he won for men's best overall and best in the heavyweight division in Saturday's first annual KM Bodybuilding Classic at Barnes Auditorium. Jerry Dover of Kings Mountain was third in the junior light heavyweight division and Rodney Saunders of KM was second in the teenage division. Over 50 contestants entered. Greene will compete in the Mr. North Carolina Contest August 27 at Ovens Auditorium in Charlotte.

KM Netters Double Winner

Kings Mountain High's tennis team defeated East Rutherford 9-0 and Burns 8-1 last week to run their Southwestern 3-A Conference record to 5-1.

The Mountaineers, defending SWC champs, can lock up second.

The Mountaineers, defending SWC champs, were scheduled to close out their regular season yesterday at R-S Central. They travel to Salisbury next Tuesday for the Western Regionals.
