City, County Tax On One Bill

Residents of Kings Mountain should have already received their tax bills for 1988.

Residents should be aware that the bill received last week from Cleveland County will be the only one they'll receive for their city and county taxes.

Kings Mountain has contracted with the county for the county to bill and collect all city taxes, and both assessments are included on the bills which were mailed last week.

Taxpayers will receive a discount if taxes are paid during the month of August.
