(Letters to Santa, from students in Mrs. Smith's fourth grade at Bethware School).

My teacher told me to pretend I have no money for Christmas. How can I celebrate Christmas? We could make cards or give some kids our toys or we could go to my grandpa's and sing songs and give love cause gifts are not Christmas, love is Christmas. We celebrate Christmas for Jesus and his birthday. Christmas is a time for loving, thinking, and a time for opening gifts. But if you do not have any money for gifts you can make cards. And a Merry Christmas.

Stephanie Lail

My teacher told me to pretend I have no money for Christmas. How can I celebrate Christmas? Well I can make stuff but Christmas is not for giving it is for loving. People think that Christmas is for giving. But it is for loving and celebrating the birth of Christ. You do get gifts from Santa and your parents. You go to church on Christmas day and pray and celebrate Christmas. But remember that Christmas is for loving and celebrating the birth of Christ.

Heather Baity

My teacher told me to pretend that I have no money for Christmas. I will celebrate Christmas by making things for Christmas, or going Christmas caroling, and maybe even going to church. But one thing I will do is have a feast. And one thing I always remember is that gifts aren't everything love is.

Sherri Bridges

My teacher told me to pretend I have no money for Christmas. How can I celebrate Christmas? We will sing songs about Jesus and eat ham and make the best of it. Make stuffs for another person to give to. Giving is not Christmas, love is. That's all we have to have to live..

Styx Ross

My teacher told me to pretend I have no money for Christmas. How can I celebrate Christmas? By making things for friends and families.

Kyle Tsui

My teacher told me to pretend I have no money for Christmas. How can I celebrate Christmas? I can love my family anyway cause Christmas isn't gifts it is love to Jesus' birth. To love everyone so we will go to church and because Christmas isn't gifts. It is love.

Dewayne Smith

My teacher told me to pretend that I have no money for Christmas gifts. How can I celebrate Christmas?

I will make things to give to people but gifts do not bring Christmas. You celebrate Jesus' birth and you see relatives. Love brings Christmas. I will celebrate by giving love.
