Crime Of The Week

The Cleveland County Sheriff's Department is seeking the public's assistance in locating the person(s) responsible for several breaking and enterings which have occurred in the Mary's Grove area of Cleveland County within the last two weeks. The majority of the break-ins have occurred in the day light hours with entry being made through the windows of the residences. Items reported taken were several VCR's, microwaves, a Panasonic laser disc, a .22 rifle, .22 pistol, .410 shotgun, and a .12 gauge shotgun. All serial numbers of the stolen items are on file with the Sheriff's Department. A suspicious-looking small red vehicle has been seen in the area at the reported times of the breaking and enterings.

If you have information regarding this vehicle, or any information leading to the recovery of any of these items or the issuance of an arrest warrant for those responsible, you could be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000.00. Confidentiality is guaranteed by calling Crimestoppers at 481-TIPS (481-8477).

A Kings Mountain woman died in a two-car crash on U. S. 74 early Friday morning as the sleet and rain began to fall. Kings Mountain Police reported several fender-benders due to the ice. No fires were reported by the Kings Mountain Fire Department.

Cleveland County got about two inches of precipitation, including ice, sleet and snow. Heavy sleet and drizzle Friday froze into sheets of ice overnight, making roads and highways treacherous as temperatures plunged. Most Kings Mountain area churches closed on Sunday. Meetings were rescheduled. Schools closed Friday at 12:30 and reopened an hour later on Monday morning.

After two consecutive days of nearly 80 degree temperatures last week, the mercury plummeted and gave area residents their first taste of winter which returned with a vengeance.

ous middle schools in the state and is now in the process of developing plans and the curriculum for the new Kings Mountain Middle School.

Mrs. O'Shields said she has been "extremely proud" of the progress the sixth graders at Central have made on the State Writing Test since its beginning in 1984. She thinks the secret to the improvement in writing scores is "Central teachers helping each other."

Mrs. O'Shields is a graduate of Number Three High School in Cleveland County and holds a B.A. in Education from the University of South Carolina, and a Masters of Education and Education Specialist degrees from Western Carolina University. She taught and coached at Gibbs Junior High School in Columbia, S.C., and Kings Mountain High School before going to Central as an assistant principal.

Mrs. O'Shields is married to Dan W. O'Shields and they have a daughter, Julie, who is a senior at Crest High School.
