MRS. STEVE CANOVA

Canova Speak Wedding Vows In Oak Ridge, Tennessee

First United Methodist Church of Oak Ridge, Tennessee was the setting Saturday, Feb. 18 for the wedding of Melynn Westberry Morris and Steve Killinger Canova.

The Rev. William C. Mooney, pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Vance Reese was organist and Sandra Boysen-Freese was soprano soloist for the program of traditional music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of ivory slipper satin and Alencon lace designed along princess lines and enhanced by pearls and iridescents. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a tiara cap of Alencon lace, pearls and iridescents and she carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids, ivory roses, alstroemeria lilies, stephanotis, ivy and baby's breath.

Lorie Morris of Silver Springs, Md. was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Judy Canova of Columbia, S. C., sister of the bridegroom, Beth Pulliam of Tallahassee, Fla., Cheryl Butler, cousin of the bride, of Gainesville, Fla. and Julia Laing of Raleigh.

All the attendants wore sapphire blue gowns with velvet bodices and sleeves with satin skirts. They carried bouquets of pixie carnations, alstroemeria lilies, cushion pompons and baby's breath. The maid of honor's bouquet was centered by a gardenia.

Best man for the bridegroom was his father.

Tom Canova, the bridegroom's brother, ushered with Tom Friar of Knoxville, Tenn., Lee Shippy, of Knoxville, Tenn., Scott Freese of Tallahassee, Fla. and Steve Ferguson of Charlotte.

The YWCA of Oak Ridge, Tennessee was the setting for the reception held after the ceremony and hosted by the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Chester Morris of Oak Ridge, Tennessee are parents of the bride who is employed by the Department of Health and Rehabilitation Services with the State of Florida, currently working as a Systems Project Analyst with the Medicaid program. She earned her degree in management from Florida State University in 1980. A member of Toastmasters International, she has earned her Competent Toastmaster (CTM) and she currently serves as an area governor in Tallahassee. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, John Wesley United Methodist Church in Tallahassee, Florida. Her grandmother, Mrs. Hazel Morris resides in Gainesville, Fla. She is also the granddaughter of the late Dr. Alton Chester Morris of Gainesville and the late Mr. and Mrs. James W. Scott of Orlando, Fla.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Levy Alvarez Canova of Kings Mountain. He is employed by the Olin Corporation and works as a development engineer for their St. Marks Operations in Tallahassee, Florida. He received his BS degree in chemical engineering from Auburn University in 1982 and his MS degree in chemical engineering from the University of Florida in 1983. His grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. Gordon B. Killinger of Gainesville, Fla. and Mrs. Mona Canova of Starke, Florida. He is also the grandson of the late Levy Alvarez Canova of Starke.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner on Feb. 17 at Garden Plaza Hotel in Oak Ridge, Tennessee.

The newlyweds have returned from a wedding trip to Aspen, Colorado and are residing at 2907 Cross Creek Circle, Tallahassee, Florida.

Deadlines

The Herald welcomes your social news for publication in the Lifestyles Section (Section C) of each Wednesday's paper.

We ask that you follow these guidelines and deadlines when presenting stories or information:

The Lifestyles section includes weddings, anniversaries, engagements, club news, senior citizens news, birthdays, reunions, and other miscellaneous women's news and news about area people.

All stories and information for these type stories must be received by 5 p.m. Friday to assure publication in the Lifestyles section. All stories are published free of charge, but there is a $5 picture preparation fee for wedding, anniversary and engagement pictures, and a $4 picture preparation charge for birthday pictures.

All wedding, anniversary and engagement pictures should be 5 x 7 black and whites. Only high quality color pictures will be accepted and polaroid pictures will not be accepted. For best results, a half-pose wedding picture should be submitted. The Herald will accept full length wedding pictures but unless they are of very high quality, the face will not reproduce well. To have a picture returned, supply a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Otherwise, the picture will be held onto for one month and then destroyed.

Bring your stories and pictures to the Herald office on Canterbury Road, or call your information into the Women's Department at 739-7496.
