

Secretaries Help Make KM Hospital Special

National Secretary Day is April 26. According to the Merriam-Webster Dictionary, a secretary is a confidential clerk; and official in charge of correspondence or records. But to the staff at Kings Mountain Hospital, secretaries mean a whole lot more.

Kings Mountain Hospital employs secretaries in many departments throughout the hospital and each secretary performs necessary, vital functions. When asked what secretary means to them, Hospital staff and employees responded with glowing compliments. According to Kings Mountain Hospital staff and employees, a secretary...

is the person we turn to for information and assistance.

is an extension of myself and I cannot function efficiently without her.

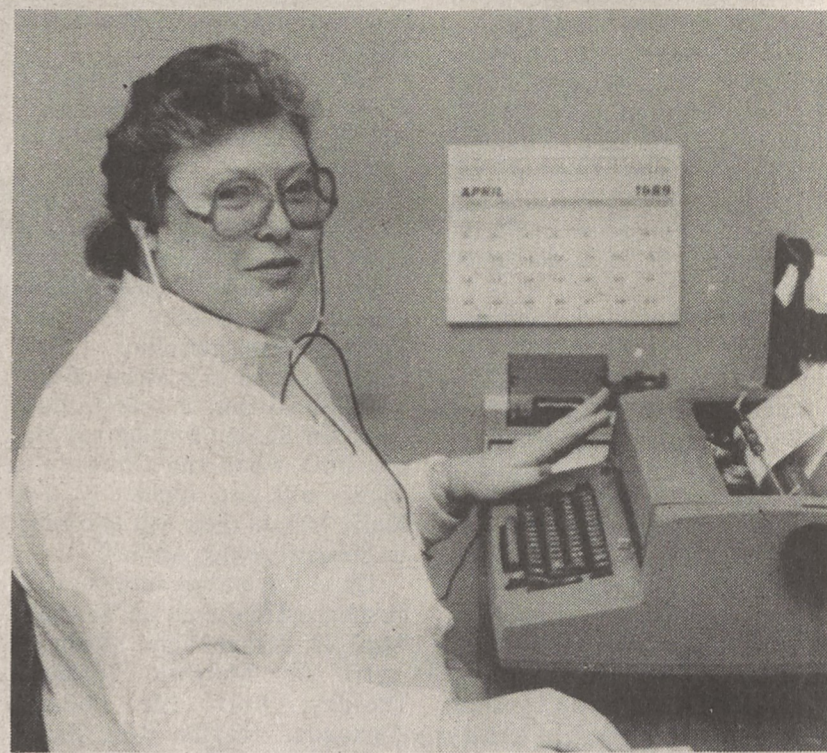

brings stability and organization. is constantly on top of the situation.

keep me reminded of tasks. has an uncanny ability for reminding me about appointments and meetings. knows what is going on with everyone. is the hub of activity. keep everything going. performs an important job.

is a necessary person. makes me smile when I've had a hectic day.

At Kings Mountain Hospital, the general consensus is that life is a littler sunnier thanks to secretaries.
