to play Shelby, it's right now," said Clark. "We need to get back to looking forward to playing people. We felt like the thing we had to do this year was to be motivated. Right now, we're playing real lazy baseball and we hope Shelby will give us that spark to get us going again."

The Mountaineers committed four errors and their pitchers walked 14 batters in Tuesday's loss at Forest City Legion Field. East Rutherford jumped off to a 5-0 first inning lead and led 9-0 after three innings.

Todd McDaniel started on the mound for the Mounties and gave way to Chris Plonk in the third. Toby Deaton came on in the fifth and finished up.

Kings Mountain outit the Cavaliers, seven to four, but with the aid of 14 bases on balls the East nine had little trouble getting the win for pitcher Terry Wright, who went the distance.

Dante McDowell's two-run single sparked the big first inning rally for East, but it was the only hit of the inning. The rest of the damage was a result of walks and errors.

Kings Mountain finally got on the board in the fifth, scoring all three of its runs on a RBI single by Chris Henson and a two-run single by Paul Brannon. Henson and Brannon were 2-for-3 each to lead the KM plate attack.

Lefthander Keith Allen picked up the pitching win, scattering eight hits and striking out 14 in a route-going performance.
