Students To Attend Governor's School

Eight Kings Mountain Senior High School students have been selected to attend 1989 Governor's School June 25-Aug. 5.

The two sites for the six-week special, summer school for North Carolina students who have qualified in academics and after tryouts in specialized fields, are Salem College at Winston Salem and St. Andrew's Presbyterian College at Laurinburg.

Chris Bridges, a sophomore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vance Bridges, will attend Governor's School West in Winston Salem and his area of concentration will be choral music.

Joseph T. Champion, a junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Champion, will also attend Salem College and his area of concentration will be in choral music.

Ashley Champion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Champion, will attend Governor's School West in Winston Salem and will study mathematics.

Michael Jordan, a sophomore and son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Jordan, will attend Governor's School East and will study mathematics.

Charlene Hardin, a junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hardin, will study instrumental music at Governor's School East in Laurinburg.

Tina Nicholson, a sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Nicholson, will also study instrumental music at Governor's School East in Laurinburg.

Katherine Jenkins, a junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jenkins, will attend Governor's School East and will study mathematics.

Michael Shane Sessoms, a junior, son of Don Sessoms, of 119 Tara Terrace, will study natural science at Governor's School East in Laurinburg.

The Governor's Schools of North Carolina is the oldest statewide summer residential program for gifted and talented high school students in the nation. The program, which is open to rising junior and senior class students only, is located on two college campuses, funded annually by the General Assembly of North Carolina and administered by the State Board of Education through the Division for Exceptional Children, State Department of Public Instruction.

Best Of The Class Jeffery Muench And Deanna Reid

Jeffery Muench Of KM One Of '89 Class's Best

For the sixth year, WSOC-TV, Channel 9 will honor North and South Carolina high school seniors in a series of 30 second public service announcements entitled "Best of the Class '89".

Ninety four students from 22 counties were selected by their school's faculty for best exemplifying the spirit of the class of '89. Each student will be featured in a public service announcement on Channel 9 beginning May 15 through July 14.

The psa was taped at the Charlotte Motor Speedway in April. A second taping session was done in the Channel 9 studios.

Area students selected as the Best of the Class of '89 include Jeffery E. Muench, Kings Mountain Senior High; Sally Elmore, Bessemer City High School; Chris Minnix, Cherryville Junior-Senior High School; and Melissa Jackson, South Point High School.

KMHS Class Of 1964 Reunion Set June 16-17

The Kings Mountain High School Class of 1964 will hold its 25th year reunion the weekend of June 16-17 at various locations.

Class President Jim Medlin said he is getting a slow response from classmates living in the Kings Mountain area, and asks all persons who plan to attend to return their responses to him at Route 3, Box 440, Sylva, N.C. 28779.

The class plans a tour of Central School and a sock hop in the Central gym on Friday, June 16. On Saturday, a picnic for all members of the families will be held at Lake Montonia, and on Saturday night the reunion social will be held at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Medlin explained that in a recent letter to classmates, he did not include his address on the letter, but instead put the address on the envelope. "I'm afraid some classmates may have thrown the envelope away and now do not know where to send their response," he said.

Anyone needing any further information may contact Medlin in Sylva or Dora Heavner in Kings Mountain.
