hold down a job, too, and found the going was hard. When she came to work at Elizabeth Weaving several months ago she was told about the adult education classes and talked with the plant manager.

"Go for it," Godbold told Annette, who is an inspector on the first shift. While Annette is working in Grover and her husband, Martin, is working in Charlotte their son is cared for by a friend, Peggy Lackey, at their home in Cherryville.

Annette likes her job but she wants to pursue a career as a hair stylist. She enjoyed cosmetology as a student at Kings Mountain Senior High School.

"I really feel blessed in so many ways," said Annette, who recalled that when she was seven months pregnant she was involved in a wreck on Sugar Creek Road in Charlotte and suffered a concussion, resulting in some loss of memory. "Luckily our baby was unhurt and I just suffered a few scars," she said.

The Cunninghams celebrated her graduation on Friday when they cut a birthday cake for their son's first birthday.
