

David Dellinger's Loss Will Be Felt

Again, Long Creek is saddened by the passing of another member. The funeral for David Dellinger of Long Creek Road was held at the church Thursday, June 1st at 4 p.m., with Dr. Charles Davenport, minister, officiating and Rev. Mitchell Pruitt, Pastor of Chestnut Ridge Baptist Church, assisting. David is survived by his wife, Thelma Price Dellinger and a sister, Mrs. Ora Collins of Kings Mountain. We extend our sympathy to Thelma and the other members of his family, including a number of nieces and nephews.

Congratulations to our 1989 high school graduates, Kevin Smith, son of Joan and Derriel Smith, and Stormy Neal, daughter of Marie Neal.

Long Creek's Summer Fun program will begin on Tuesday, June 13. The children will gather at the church at 9 a.m., and remain there until 12 noon. There will be a van pick-up each Tuesday morning.

The Long Creek Bible Buddies and the Pioneer youth group celebrated a "school's out" cookout at the home of Dave and Joan Berry Saturday night. These groups meet regularly on Wednesday nights at 7 p.m., for catechism and Bible study, and craft activities.

Plans are being made for Vacation Bible School, which will be held in the evenings, beginning July 8. Joan Smith and Joan Berry will be in charge.

Joe and Becky Bridges collected food to take to the Cleveland-Lincoln County areas that were hit by the tornadoes on May 5. On May 20, they delivered the items collected. They had a pick-up load of groceries and also had some items in Betty and Mutt Rayfield's van. Manual and Mae Bridges also went along when they delivered the food items.

Manuel Bridges is recuperating at his home on Wilson-Bridges Road following cataract eye surgery in Charlotte last week. We are glad he is doing well and wish him a speedy recovery.

Mike and Dena Bridges were on vacation last week and visited places of interest in Kentucky.

Amy Robinson, daughter of Bobby and Maudie Robinson of Lewis Farm Road, is visiting with her parents after graduating from Presbyterian School of Christian Education in Richmond, Virginia on May 13. She will now be busy preparing for her wedding to take place August 5 at Long Creek Church.

Missy Bridges of Sunnyside-Shady Rest Road has returned to Western Carolina University, Cullowhee, to complete her final studies for her Master's Degree in Communications. She will finish at the end of the summer term.

AND THE WINNER IS....the beautiful, talented Steve Barrett. Barrett performs for the crowd in Saturday night's Womanless Beauty Pageant at B.N. Barnes Auditorium. The pageant was held to raise money for a new building for the Kings Mountain Rescue Squad.

Steve, You're A Fine Fellow!

Being on vacation threw me behind on home news and it was only through an article written to the Editor of the Herald that I learned my article published on Wednesday, May 17, concerning Steve Barrett had been greatly misunderstood. Therefore, I feel an apology to Steve is in order.

The article was written as a "joke or roast" and was prompted by Steve's teasing that I never mentioned his birthday in "my ole column". Knowing the type personality Steve has and the way he likes to tease and given the slant on which I wrote the article I just never dreamed it would be taken seriously. As it turns out I could never have been more wrong and the intended "joke" was not very funny to Steve. In reality, Steve is a very strong personality in our church, the source of much laughter and a wealth of beautiful music as he sings for us from week to week. He is very dedicated and attends the church faithfully. He is well liked among our members and is indeed unique, in a pleasant way.

I have apologized privately to Steve but I felt since the article was public the apology should be also. I would also like to thank Steve's friends at work for their article in support of him and for calling to my attention my ineptness. I have pinned the article to my board above my desk so that I will never forget to be more careful in the way I use my words.

Sunday afternoon was a very special day for Millard and Hester Putnam at our church. The Gleaners Class, who have "adopted" Mr. and Mrs. Putnam as "parents" since the Putnam's have no children, sponsored a 57th anniversary party for them. The Putnams have been faithful members of the church for many years and Millard still plays bass guitar for us when he is able.

Charles and Brenda Fite celebrated their 29 wedding anniversary on Monday, June 5. The Fites along with their daughter, Diane and her husband and son, Bryan and Brandon McKee, vacationed at Myrtle Beach. During their visit Charles, Bryan and Brandon took a helicopter tour of the beach. Charles videoed the beach area from the air as a memento of their visit. We wish you many more happy years together, Charles and Brenda!

Bryan Fite and five of his buddies decided to take a special vacation this year. The five friends took a cruise through Caribbean waters and spent two days in Miami, Florida. The cruise, which lasted 5 days, gave the guys time to build a

Happy Anniversary to Joanne and Cracker Dellinger! The Dellingers celebrated their 28th anniversary on Friday, June 2.

Gregory McLeymore turned 16 on Monday, May 26 and celebrated by promptly getting his drivers license. Happy birthday and congratulations to you Greg!

Sunday, June 11 will be "ole timers day" at Chestnut Ridge. The day is set aside to honor our senior members and a big country dinner will be served for them in the church fellowship hall. The Rev.

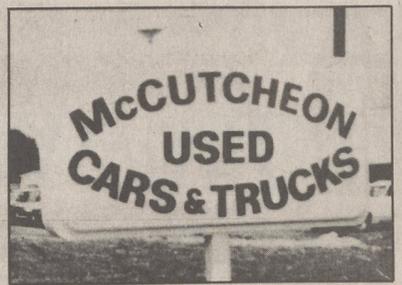

J.C. Gore will be quest speaker in the evening services. Everyone is invited, especially former members, to don your ole timey clothes and come enjoy the day with us!

We extend our sympathy to Thelma Dellinger in the loss of her husband. David Dellinger, a long time resident of Chestnut Ridge Community died in the Kings Mountain Hospital on Tuesday, May 27. Mr. Dellinger had been ill for several years.
