REV. RUSSELL HINTON
SHELBY - Rev. Russell Hinton, former pastor of Oak Grove Baptist Church in Kings Mountain, died June 23 at Pleasant Valley Hospital in Point Pleasant, W. Va., as a result of an automobile accident. Rev. Hinton, 64, was a resident of West Double Shoals Road in Shelby and was pastor of Double Shoals Baptist Church.

A Rocky Mount native, he was the son of Charlie Russell Hinton of Wallace, and Willie Rivenark Jones of Carrollton, Va.

Other survivors include his wife, Lillie McAlhane Hinton of the home; one son, Thomas Russell Hinton of Apex; two daughters, Mrs. Karen Caldwell of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Sheila Duke of Norwood; three sisters, Ms. Mary H. Strange of Rocky Mount, Mrs. Doris Proctor of Rocky Mount and Mrs. Margaret Brantley of Landsing, Kan.; and three grandchildren.

He was a U.S. Navy veteran of World War II.

He was a member of the Pastor's Group of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association, and at one time served as chaplain for the Oak Grove and Ranlo fire departments. He served on various committees in the associations he served during his ministry.

He was assistant pastor at Leaksville First Baptist (now Eden, N.C.), and pastor of Osborn Mission in Eden, Providence Baptist at Stoneville, Bear Marsh Baptist at Mount Olive, Calvary Baptist at Hamlet, Conrad Memorial Baptist at High Point, Oak Grove Baptist in Kings Mountain, Fraley Memorial Baptist in Gastonia, and Double Shoals Baptist in Shelby, which he had served since 1984. He served as minister of education at North Main Street Baptist Church in High Point.

Graveside services were conducted Monday at 3 p.m. at Double Shoals Baptist Church by the Rev. Cline Borders and the Rev. C.O. Green.

Memorials may be made to Double Shoals Baptist Church, Route 5, Shelby, 28150.
