City Prayer Service Set

A city-wide prayer network for "spiritual awakening" will be held on Saturday, Sept. 16, from 9:30 to noon at East Gold Wesleyan Church.

Thirty people organized a Kings Mountain prayer network July 25th at a meeting at Kings Mountain Baptist Church under the leadership of Betty Cash Mitchell and her pastor, Rev. Fred Schaap. Seven women from the group attended the quarterly gathering of the Prayer Network in Charlotte July 29 at First Baptist Church.

"The Sept. 16 meeting will be a 'starter meeting' of people called of God to pray for revival and spiritual awakening for the Kings Mountain area," said Mrs. Mitchell, who said that several years ago the Prayer Network group in Charlotte-Metrolina area began a careful search to identify the praisers and set meetings at least four times a year to pray strategically in a movement for prayer and revival.

Prior to the Sept. 16 meeting,

Mrs. Mitchell and committee members will be calling on area ministers and churches to advise them of the purpose of the Sept. 16 meeting and to encourage prayer support.

The Prayer Network Task Force led by Mary Lance Sisk will lead the Sept. 16 meeting, provide worship and share the vision the Lord has given them for revival and spiritual awakening in the Charlotte-Metrolina area, including Kings Mountain.

For more information or to volunteer on the Kings Mountain Prayer Network for Spiritual Awakening call Betty Cash Mitchell, 739-3401; Katherine McKinney, 739-2141 or The Word Book Store.

First Baptist Church Plans Music Program

The Sanctuary Choir of Kings Mountain's First Baptist Church will present a program of sacred music at 7 p.m. this Sunday evening.

The music will vary in style from contemporary Christian music, to hymn arrangements, to southern gospel. More importantly, the message of the program is entitled, "Singing Of God's Love."

The choir of more than 40 voices is under the direction of Morris Jordan, Minister of Music at First Baptist Church. The accompanists are Ellen Elam, organist, and Norma Pettus, pianist.

The program will be given in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church Sunday evening.

The public is invited.

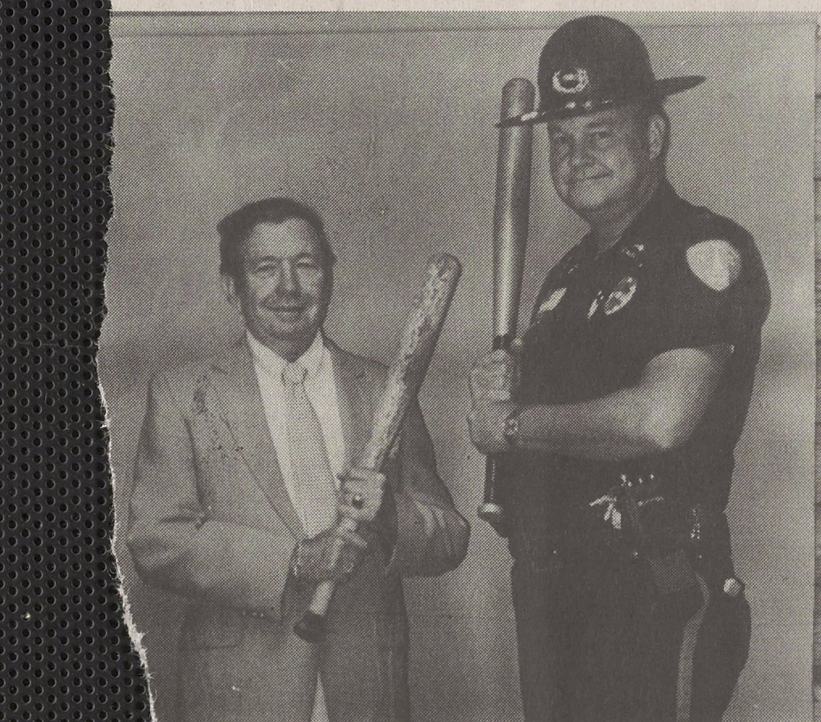

Bethlehem Sets Cookout

A churchwide cookout will be held at Bethlehem Baptist Church on Sunday, Sept. 30, at 6:15 p.m.

The cookout will be on the grounds, with blankets or lawn chairs. Following the meal there will be a "Sing-Along with Rod" which promises good fun and fellowship for all.

The meal will be served from 6:15 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. at cost of $2 for adults and $1 for children.
