Street Paving Priorities Listed

A list of 35-45 city streets inspected for need of repaving has been presented to city council by Community Services Director Tom Howard.

Howard said FY 90 funding will pay for projects totaling $94,000.

Howard said priority was given to those streets where paving has deteriorated or failed due largely to settlement, poor drainage, poor compaction or age.

Priority one are Sims Street (SR 74-Waco Road), Floyd Street (York Road-Marie Street) and Cansler Street (Gold-Hawthorne Road.)

Priority two are Roxford Road (SR 74 Downey Street), Henry Street, (Katherine and Ellenwood Drive) and Dilling Street (Phenix and East King Street.)

Clubs
Raise $4,000

The Kings Mountain Kiwanis and Sharks Aquatics Clubs swam a total of 3,856 laps Saturday during "Splashdown '89."

The clubs collected approximately $4,000 in pledges. The money will be used to sponsor various school projects and to purchase some bleachers for the Kings Mountain Indoor Pool.

Thirty-seven swimmers were aided by many volunteers who counted laps, cheered swimmers and served refreshments. The youngest swimmers participating were Virginia Neisler, 4, and Drew Neisler, 6, who swam 14 laps. Special recognition went to Dr. Bob Baker, 73, and his wife, Mary Louise, 67, who were the oldest swimmers to complete their laps. Dr. Baker swam 100 laps.

The club members will now be beginning collecting donations and money for laps swum. Final totals and a list of participants will be announced later.
