Jayvees Defeat Lions 14-0

Kings Mountain High's junior varsity football team blanked Shelby 14-0 Thursday night at John Gamble Stadium to run their record to 4-0 against Southwestern 3-A Conference opponents and 5-2 overall.

Although there is no official conference race in junior varsity sports, the Mountaineers are the only SWC team that has not lost to another conference opponent. East Rutherford has lost once and Shelby twice.

Fullback Jermaine Grier and tailbacks Pat Ross and Robbie Ruff provided a strong inside-outside running attack for Coach John Bumgardner's Mountaineers last week. Grier pounded the middle of the Shelby line all night and Ross and Ruff broke some good runs around the ends.

The Mountaineers marched the opening kickoff 65 yards for the

Two Share $100 Prize

Two coaches showed their football knowledge and shared the $100 prize in last week's Herald football contest.

Paul Bolt, former JV football coach at Kings Mountain High, and Barry Webster, a coach at Bessemer City Junior High, both picked 19 of 20 winners and hit the tie-breaker on the nose to win $50 apiece.

Both men missed the Texas victory over Arkansas, as did Johnny McKinney and Kim Franks. But Bolt and Webster both predicted there would be 20 points scored in the KM-Shelby game (won by Shelby 14-6). Franks predicted 28 points and McKinney 35.

The ninth of 10 weekly contests is inside today's Herald. Pick the most winners and return your entry by 4 p.m. Friday, either by bringing it by our office on East King Street P.O. Box 769, Kings Mountain, or mailing it to Football Contest, N.C. 28086.
